

Fire & EMS in Windsor-Essex Partner with Wounded Warriors for Mental Health

First responders with Essex-Windsor Emergency Medical Services and LaSalle Police and Fire Services will have more access to mental health and wellness resources going forward.

The groups partnered with Wounded Warriors Canada (WWC), a group that provides “access to innovative programs promoting mental wellness,” according to a news release.

There are eight core programs offered by the organization, from residential trauma therapy to resiliency training.

To access recent press releases, please click the following media links:

<https://www.cbc.ca/news/canada/windsor/ems-police-wounded-warriors-1.5081422>

<https://www.iheartradio.ca/am800/news/partnership-with-wounded-warriors-and-local-ems-a-canadian-first-1.9048189>