TORONTO, Dec. 07, 2018 -- Unisync Corp. (TSXV: "UNI") ("Unisync") is pleased to announce that its wholly-owned subsidiary Unisync Group Limited ("UGL") has been selected by WestJet to manufacture and distribute new uniforms to their more than 11,000 uniformed employees across Canada and the world. This multi-year agreement represents the culmination of an extensive review of Unisync's award-winning product quality and customer-focused suite of fulfillment services. This new agreement covers the manufacturing, supply and program management of a new design of imagewear for all of WestJet's pilots, cabin crew members, customer service agents, aircraft maintenance engineers, and ground crew.

"We are pleased and honoured to have been selected by WestJet to be their uniform provider," commented UGL President, B. James Bottoms. "We look forward to showcasing the new WestJet uniforms on WestJet flights across Canada, the U.S. and internationally in the near future."

The newly-designed imagewear will appear on crews operating WestJet's Boeing 787-9 Dreamliner and select WestJetters across the network for testing in late 2019, with rollout across the remainder of the WestJet network through 2021.
