Policies and Terms of Consignment Contract

Below are the terms and conditions of consignments for Share the Love Consignment, North Andover, MA.....

We will accept current women's fashions, activewear, shoes, handbags and accessories that are in excellent resale condition only. All garments must be in rack-ready condition – clean with no stains or deodorant marks, ironed with no holes, snags or pilling. We will return your hangers to you before you leave upon request. We have the right to refuse any item we feel will not sell in our store. If an item is left for consignment and we determine it has a defect as stated above, we will automatically donate the item. No exceptions, so please check your items carefully before your appointment.

Our terms of the consignment contract are for 60 days if you choose to pick up your items at the end or 90 days if you choose to donate your items at the end. Should you choose to pick up your unsold items, it is your responsibility to collect them within 15 days of the end of the 60 day period and you may not be notified so please be sure to mark your calendar with your contract end date. When picking up your unsold items, we ask that you give us 24 hour notice to locate the unsold items in the store and remove them from our system and you may need to assist us in collecting them. There may be items we are able to keep for longer than 60 days but that will be at the discretion of the Share the Love staff at that time. All items that are not picked up within the defined timeframe become the property of Share the Love Consignment and the disposition of those items is at the sole discretion of Share the Love Consignment.

While we do our best to keep your consigned items safe, all consignments are left at the owner's risk. Share the Love Consignment is not responsible for loss, theft, fire or any other damage while in our possession. Our store is insured, but your merchandise is not since it is not owned by us, as this is the insurance company's policy. Share the Love is not liable for any loss while your merchandise is under consignment.

Our 60 Day consignment payout is as follows:

- Day 1-30 you will receive 40% of the sales price for items sold under $100 and 50% of the sales price for items sold over $100, minus any taxes or fees
- Day 30-60 your item will be discounted 20% and you will receive 40% of the sales price for items sold under $100 and 50% of the sales price for items sold over $100, minus any taxes or fees

Share the Love makes their best effort to merchandise, sell and care for all consignments. We will determine the best price for each item, researching where necessary, and price it accordingly. All items are marked down 20% after 30 days and we reserve the right to include the item(s) in special sale events and promotions at any time. Should you choose not to include your items in an upcoming sale, please be sure to come in and collect your items prior to the markdown period.

Pay Out:

Checks will be cut at the request of the consignor after the 60 or 90 day contract period is complete, as long as your credit balance is $25.00 or more. If you do not request a check at that time, your funds will remain in your account and can be picked up at a later date or used to shop within the store.

By agreeing to these contract terms, you are confirming that all items consigned for sale are lawfully and solely owned by you, or as an agent acting on authority given to you, to sell such merchandise. By submitting your items for sale, you are verifying that they are genuine, authentic and not counterfeit. A $25 fee will be collected up front to allow us to authenticate any designer accessory that does not come with a certificate of authenticity.

I have received and read the consignment terms and conditions and agree to all terms and conditions listed.
