

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Satanic Temple Announces Second Abortion Clinic

SALEM, MA — The Satanic Temple (TST) has announced it will be opening a second Satanic Abortion Clinic. One year after the establishment of the Samuel Alito's Mom's Satanic Abortion Clinic in New Mexico, a second telehealth clinic will be opening to service TST members in another state. The Satanic Temple has not disclosed the new state at this time, although the religious organization has launched a fundraiser to support the free healthcare services they provide. Like their existing clinic, the new one will provide comprehensive abortion care services at no cost.

Erin Helian, Executive Director of TST, said, "As we prepare to extend our telehealth abortion services through this second clinic, we are faced with the substantial financial challenges that accompany such a critical initiative. From operational costs to insurance premiums, the path to providing free, round-the-clock access to top-tier abortion healthcare is fraught with hurdles," Helian stated.

The Satanic Temple's healthcare division, TST Health, is reaching out to supporters to participate in a "Name the Abortion Clinic" fundraiser. Those who donate $666 or more can propose a name for the new clinic. "This is more than a fundraiser; it's a chance to be part of a legacy that champions reproductive rights and religious liberty," added Helian.

The final clinic name, selected through community donations and contributions, will be announced on April 30, 2024. At that time, the location of the new clinic will also be disclosed.

About The Satanic Temple

The Satanic Temple, subject of the critically acclaimed documentary, Hail Satan?, and the academic analysis of modern Satanism, Speak of the Devil, confronts religious discrimination to secure the separation of church and state and defend the Constitutional rights of its members.
