FUNDRAISING TRANSPARENCY:

At Omaze, we believe fundraising should be about impact. Our model allows us, in partnership with our client to make a real difference and disrupt the way society traditionally thinks about charitable giving. This Experience is run as part of a fundraising campaign for Charities Aid Foundation America (“CAFA”).

Here’s how it works: Omaze provides charitable fundraising services for CAFA, which is a globally recognized, United States 501(c)(3) public charity. As part of its fundraising services, Omaze offers incredible Experiences and prizes that anyone can potentially win. All donations made in connection with an Experience are transferred by Omaze directly to CAFA. In furtherance of its charitable mission to make giving to international and domestic charities safe, easy and effective, CAFA will use the net donations raised by Experiences run as part of the CAFA fundraising campaign to distribute grants to identified non-profit beneficiaries. All such beneficiaries are pre-validated by CAFA and all grants are made in accordance with CAFA’s grantmaking policies and procedures.

If it is anticipated that CAFA will use the net donations raised in an Experience to make a grant to any specific non-profit beneficiary(ies), such entity(ies) will be identified on the Experience-specific webpage, under the Section “Who You Will Help” as well as in the Experience Rules, under the section “Designated Grantee.” So long as an identified Designated Grantee continues to qualify as an eligible recipient of CAFA grants, CAFA will make a grant out of that Experience’s net donations to the identified Designated Grantee(s). If, at some point prior to the distribution of a grant by CAFA, CAFA determines that an identified Designated Grantee is no longer eligible to receive CAFA grants, CAFA will either (i) withhold distribution of the grant until the Designated Grantee is able to reconfirm its eligibility or (ii) grant the funds to a nonprofit that shares a similar mission to the identified Designated Grantee’s mission. Eligibility determinations for CAFA grants and selection of an alternate Designated Grantee (if applicable), are made at CAFA’s sole discretion. However, if a determination is made to grant funds to an alternate Designated Grantee, we will update the Experience webpage.
