PLASTIC FREE ALTERNITIVES TO EVERYDAY ITEMS

About us

Hello, I'm Coren!

I am the founder of SeaForYourselfco an eco-conscious brand selling plastic alternatives to everyday travel items .

In 2018 travelling across Bali in search of beautiful scenery and coastlines and I soon became aware of the extent plastic pollution is having on our planet. Bali really was the first place to open my eyes to this issue of plastic pollution.

Returning home I looked at my own single use plastic consumption and I was shocked by the amount I had thrown away while travelling.

Bamboo Cutlery

My bamboo cutlery is the perfect plastic free alternative for traveling, camping or daily life. Keep your sustainable cutlery in your bag, lunchbox or car ready for any meal on the go.

My bamboo cutlery comes in a handy cotton pouch with 8 designs to choose from. Keeping your cutlery sanitary on the go.

My Pitch

Social media is at the forefront of my branding and marketing strategy and I understand that people buy from people. I have been sharing my plastic pollution journey on social media to show that small changes away from plastic can have a big impact. I am keen to lead the way in providing plastic free alternatives to single use items and promote a positive message for SeaForYourselfco.

With the law changing around single use plastic cutlery, now is the perfect time to offer a sustainable alternates. My products have the purpose of fitting into your handbag in a neat cotton pouch ready for any meal on the go. How many times can you say you have you forgotten a fork from home? With our bamboo cutlery this will not happen again.
