*Think smart
Business*

A pitfall for fresh young entrepreneurs is an unwise tendency to only dress down - jeans, t-shirts and a T-shirt are all a pressed shirt ready. More importantly, men and women should have a transitional jacket hanging in the office for those hot-minute meetings. Something navy or grey that fits - which can also be packed into a Rollaway and bounced back into action with a determined shake.

About Gnome & Bow

Stories are the fabric of memory which make life entertaining and unexpected. Fairytales and folklore speak a language that is both universal and immortal, transcending the barriers of age and culture. Gnome & Bow was founded on that very notion that bags can go beyond functionality to become a new medium for storytelling, evoking the same emotions as our favorite stories.

The Gnome represents that element of fantasy while the Bow symbolises the mark of class. Together, the harmony of these elements guides us in our design philosophy.

Drawing inspiration from the classics to tales of fancy, we develop story elements that are imbued seamlessly into our goods. As with reading a book for the first time, exploring our products will uncover subtle and clever details that reveal a story you'll find familiar, but with a modern twist. Timeless as the stories that inspire us, we believe that our bags should be too.

Our collection of bags, wallets and small leather accessories are designed to be the perfect companion for the discerning individual.
