

Woodstock Chimes® Launches New Products That Are for the Birds

SHOKAN, N.Y., July 21, 2020 – Woodstock Chimes, the leading manufacturer of musically tuned windchimes, has launched several products that you might say are “for the birds,” which are soaring in popularity. Building on the success of the Woodstock Rainbow Makers™ Crystal Suncatchers in the Crystal Fantasy™ – Hummingbird (left, SKU: CFHU) and Cardinal (right, SKU: CFCRD) styles, the company is spreading its wings and launching the Crystal Hummingbird Chime™ (left, SKU: WFHU) and Crystal Cardinal Chime™ (right, SKU: WFCRD) styles.

The new chimes, which retail for $25, feature black wash finish ash wood, six silver aluminum rods and a nickel-plated brass ornament. The Hummingbird features beautiful blue and clear faceted crystal accents and the Cardinal features radiant red and clear faceted crystal accents. Both chimes measure 18 inches in overall length and come ready to give in a four-color gift box.

The Woodstock Rainbow Makers Crystal Fantasies, which retail for $20, are handmade in the United Kingdom using genuine Austrian crystals and a nickel-plated brass ornament. The Hummingbird features multi-color crystal accents and the Cardinal features radiant red and clear crystal accents. Both Crystal Fantasies measure 4.5-inches long and are 10 inches in overall length with a silver finish plated brass chain and hook. They come ready to give with an organza gift bag.

“Our retailers have found rising success with our bird-themed products,” said Garry Kvistad, founder and owner of Woodstock Chimes and a GRAMMY® Award-winning musician. “Summer is a great time to feature these products, especially in the long-awaited 2020 outdoor season. Between the new Crystal Chimes and our Rainbow Makers, retailers and consumers alike can experience and enjoy the breadth of our product line at rather affordable price points. Woodstock Rainbow Makers are recommended for indoor use, while the new chimes can be appreciated anywhere at any time. Both are ideal for birding stores, gift shops, garden centers and the like.”
