

→ 10 Eisenhauer Gallery

38 North Water Street
Edgartown, MA 02539
(508) 627-7003

For over twelve years Eisenhauer Gallery on Martha's Vineyard has specialized in a refreshing collection from traditional to contemporary representational paintings and sculpture. Housed inside the Colonial Inn, the gallery overlooks the picturesque Edgartown Harbor.

Summer exhibitions include Belgian artist Michel Brosseau's solo show that opens on July 7. His work is dedicated to easel paintings on seaside themes. Then on July 14 opens a solo show for marine artist Mikel Wintermantel, an illuminist painter and a Copley Society Master. Opening on July 28 with a cocktail reception from 6-8pm is Modernity Born of Tradition; New Chinese Paintings from Xian and Guilin, with artwork by seven acclaimed Chinese artists.

11 Granary Gallery

636 Old County Road,
West Tisbury, MA 02575,
(800) 472-6279

The oldest and largest gallery on the island, Granary Gallery at the red barn has been one of the most popular destinations on Martha's Vineyard for years. Renowned for its interesting collection of art and antiques, the gallery is open year round and represents a variety of artists including painters, photographers, sculptors and jewelers. Granary Gallery represents more than 75 talented artists all sharing a bit of their own island experience including painter Richard Casey, Charles Kenny, Steve Mills, Heather Neill, marine photographer Jeffrey Serusa,

All shows have artist receptions held on Sundays from 5-7pm. Opening on July 8 the work of Alison Shaw, Kenneth Vincent and Anda Styler will be featured in the gallery. Then opening on July 22 is new work from Heather Neill, Karen Larson Turner, Don Wilkes and Jeffrey Serusa. Opening August 5 is work by Mary Sipp-Green, Richard Casey, Scott Terry and Ross Coppelman. Finally on August 19 work by Diana Van Nes, Lois Maillou Jones, and John Philip Hagen will be on show at the gallery.

10 Eisenhauer Gallery, Retirement is a Breeze, 58 X 45", by Michel Brosseau

11 Granary Gallery, Sleeping In, by Ken Vincent

Nantucket

Easily reached year-round by air or high-speed ferry, Nantucket Island is located 30 miles south of Cape Cod. A perfect summer destination, visitors can swim through September, charter a deep-sea fishing boat or enjoy a local tradition of clambakes on the wide sandy beaches. The art galleries, quaint boutiques, restaurants, museums and relaxed atmosphere complete Nantucket's appeal to travelers.

12 The Brigham Galleries

54 Centre Street; Nantucket
(508) 825-2525

The Brigham Galleries is an international gallery in the heart of old Nantucket. Founded in 2002 by Director Sara Boyce, the gallery features both Early American paintings and works by a group of exquisitely and traditionally trained artists living in the U.S. and around the world. The gallery features an extensive roster of Portrait Artists, including many of the most highly ranked portraitists currently painting.

12 The Brigham Galleries in Nantucket

Opening on Thursday, July 12 with a reception from 6-8pm is Realism, Impressionism & Abstraction, a three-person show featuring works by Realist Gundula Jacobs, Impressionist Stan Moeller and abstract artist Laurie Goddard. Then opening on Friday, July 27 with a reception from 6-8pm is a show from the internationally respected Florence Academy of Art, the second exhibition of Founder and Director Daniel Graves' classically trained artists. The show runs through August 14th. Opening on Thursday, August 30 with a reception from 6:30-8pm is The Brigham Galleries: Collecting Art with classically trained artist, Jan Brough giving a presentation on stunning light effects in art from the Old Masters to today.

13 Cavalier Galleries

34 Main Street, Nantucket, MA 02554
(508) 325-4405

Cavalier Galleries' history of serving the art world dates back to the early 60s with Mr. Cavalier Sr. pioneering new technology in the art foundry industry, followed by years of working with collectors, corporations, artists and museums such as The Metropolitan Museum of Art, The Hirshhorn Museum and MOMA. Founded in 1986, Cavalier Galleries &

13 Cavalier Galleries in Nantucket

Sculpture Garden was originally located at Landmark Square in Stamford, CT, where Mr. Cavalier began exhibiting the works of emerging and established artists.

Cavalier Galleries, Inc. moved its main gallery to its present location at 405 Greenwich Avenue, Greenwich, Connecticut in 1994. In the spring of 2000, Cavalier Galleries opened a large gallery and sculpture garden in Nantucket, Massachusetts at 7 Salem Street. The Nantucket gallery expanded to a two-floor 5,500-square-foot space at 34 Main Street in January 2006.

12 The Brigham Galleries, Sunset at Great Point, 11 x 14" by Stan Moeller

Paintings and sculpture by contemporary artists working in a representational style have become the main theme. The gallery also maintains outdoor sculpture exhibitions of large-scale sculpture, both non-representational and figurative, in Greenwich and Nantucket.

All summer exhibitions have opening receptions from 6-8pm on the opening day of the show. Showing July 5-12 are paintings by John Terelak and Scott Duce and bronze sculpture by Gary Price. From July 12-19 are paintings by Leonard Everett Fisher and David Bareford and photography by Michael Kahn. Showing July 19-26 is bronze sculpture by Jim Rennert and paintings by William Storck, Li Xiao and Sonya Sklaroff. From July 26-August 2 paintings by Nicholas Berger and Nina Maguire are on show. From August 2-9 are paintings by Frank Corso and then from August 11-18 bronze sculpture by Jane DeDecker and paintings by Marla Korr and showing. From August 16-23 are maritime paintings by Maarten Platje and then from August 23-30 are paintings by Shirley Cean Youngs.

13 Cavalier Galleries, Monomoy Summer, oil on canvas, 14 x 20", by Li Xiao

MIKEL WINTERMANTEL

Copley Society Master

July 14, 2007

“AQUINNAH LIGHT”

24x60

Oil

$18000

Eisenhauer  Galleries

---

E D G A R T O W N                      O A K   B L U F F S

38 NORTH WATER ST. • P.O. Box 1930 • EDGARTOWN, MA • PHONE: 508.627.7003
8 UNCAS AVE. • OAK BLUFFS, MA • PHONE: 508.693.3332
www.eisenhauergallery.com • email: elizabeth@eisenhauergallery.com