

Hula Brother's Longan FAQ

We harvest, pack and ship our longan within 48 hours - it's shipped via overnight delivery but can often take 2 days to be delivered based on your location and shipping delays.

Here is a case that was delivered to Washington state.

It is normal for the peels to darken and turn brown during shipping.

The fruit should still be crisp, sweet and delicious!

We recommend storing your fruit in a plastic bag or sealed container in the fridge.
