DETOUR GEL RAT REPELLENT

is an EPA-Registered, NSF-Certified, US-Patented, 100% non-toxic, chemical-free, contact repellent gel that has been proven to repel and deter rats and mice from congregating and returning to a home, business, warehouse, factory, workplace or other structures. The NSF Certification allows it to be used safely in health-sensitive areas such as restaurants, hotels, hospitals, convenience stores, supermarkets, schools, food storage rooms and food preparation areas.

NEW INNOVATIVE TECHNOLOGY

Our biotechnology combines pharmaceutical-grade organic capsaicin, a natural component of hot chili peppers, with our proprietary clear, odorless, non-staining, weatherproof food-grade mineral oil gel that provides long-lasting protection from unwanted rats and mice. Our gel's superior durability allows application in ANY environment no matter how hot, cold, wet or dusty.

HOW IT WORKS

The gel's pharmaceutical-grade capsaicin incites a strong irritant on rats and mice once they make physical contact with the product. These rodents then carry the gel to nearby nesting areas where their natural grooming habits cause them to further spread the distressing gel. This produces a fast-fleeing response in other nearby rodents. The stress of the hot pepper gel creates confusion among the rats and mice which also enhances the effectiveness of existing conventional rodent traps.
