

Farmhouse Natural Oak Lacquered

Product Description

Our Farmhouse Natural Oak Lacquered can bring a touch of natural warmth and character to any room in your home. The light brown tones with cream hues alongside the darker grain and black coffee knots add a brightening note to properties and create a comfortable atmosphere. The undeniable charisma of this engineered wood flooring makes it a welcome addition to classic interiors where a neutral decor or brightly coloured details can shine through and complement its rural charm perfectly. Blending style and substance with elegance, Farmhouse Natural Oak offers amazing value, from its durable construction to its 6mm wear layer and the simply gorgeous lacquered finish.
