

PRODUCE AWARDS

2021

delicious.
Harvey Norman[®]

PRODUCE AWARDS 2021

AUSTRALIA'S BEST PRODUCERS →

PRODUCE AWARDS.

OUTSTANDING INNOVATION

-WINNER-

SEA FOREST, TAS

"Sea Forest has taken up exciting international research involving seaweed as one of the most effective, natural ways of absorbing carbon emissions from the atmosphere and also deacidifying the ocean."

- Maggie Beer

Gold Coast Hinterland

OUTSTANDING REGION

-WINNER-

TWEED & THE GOLD COAST HINTERLAND, NSW & QLD

"Defined by fertile land and regenerative producers, this region sees communities connect, with a view to a sustainable future in agri-tourism. It's driven by quality offerings and forging the right messaging around discovering its hidden gems. The Tweed and Gold Coast Hinterland celebrate its provenance in a meaningful way." - Christine Manfield

UNEARTHED NEXT-GEN PRODUCER

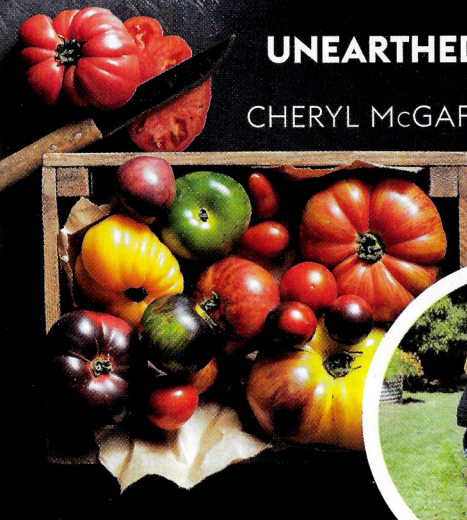

-WINNER-

CHERYL MCGAFFIN, DANIEL'S RUN FARM, VIC

"Cheryl McGaffin is one of our most passionate growers, pushing the boundaries on heirloom tomatoes. Cheryl's remarkable knowledge and dedication to the traditions of growing all varieties from seed is remarkable.

She can name every one of her plants and where the seeds are sourced."

- Vicki Wild and Martin Benn

Tweed

OUTSTANDING ARTISAN

-WINNER-

TIM MALFROY, MALFROY'S GOLD, NSW

"Tim Malfroy produces liquid gold. His honey has such a unique flavour and texture, with each jar telling a story of passion. The bees are cared for among the flora and fauna in the Blue Mountains and it shows. Malfroy's Gold honey is top of the class."

- Matt Moran

IN THE BOTTLE

-WINNER-

SEVEN SEASONS DISTILLERY, SA

"Daniel Motlop is a proud Larrakia man who founded Something Wild Spirits, launching with his famed green-ant gin, sourced from his mob in Larrakia country. This is a brilliant Aboriginal-owned-and-operated business with a deep and vested connection to Indigenous agriculture. The spirits so far released are outstanding in quality."

- Mike Bennie

