On a pretty, old street, in a pretty, old house
lived a boy named Jack,
and his dog Snowy.

After kindergarten, Jack liked to play with his trains and watch his favourite cartoons.

He had no brothers or sisters, so Jack had fun with his best friend Zac.

The best part of the day was bedtime,
when he and Mama read stories.

One night, Jack saw lines around Mama's mouth and eyes...

Jack was scared.
What if he did not recognise her one day?

This is Jack.
He is sort of cheeky...
and likes to ask unusual questions.

This is Mama.
She answers all
the questions—
no matter how odd they are.

See the world through Jack's eyes.

In this book, Jack notices wrinkles on Mama's face and worries he won't recognise her one day.
Will he grow old too?

In this series

Jack Is Curious is inspired by the inquisitive and insightful mind of the son of Linda Locke, the co-author of Agnes and Her Amazing Orchid.
