200 YEARS AND COUNTING...

Dunns Bakery is run by sixth generation baker, Lewis Freeman. Lewis is at the helm of this local institution, after taking over from his parents, Christopher and Christina Freeman.

And how did it all start? Lewis' Great-Great-Great-Grandfather, Robert Freeman, came from Northamptonshire in 1820 on a hay-wagon and started work as a baker in Highgate. In 1827 he opened the first Freeman family-owned bakery on Highgate Hill. In 1946, Robert's Great-Grandson, David Freeman, acquired Dunns Bakery in Crouch End.

Two hundred years later here we still are, with Lewis intent on keeping his family's traditions alive!

Now happily retired, Lewis' father Christopher received a Lifetime Achievement Award for his work in Craft Baking and Baking Education. As well as this, he founded National Doughnut Week which has raised over £1 million for children's charities.

Lewis continues the tradition of supporting both charities and local community. In 2020, he opened Dunns in Muswell Hill. Lewis, his family and all of us here at Dunns would like to thank the loyalty of all of our customers. Here's to another 200 years...
