Beauty Awards

The results are in for the annual Natural Health Beauty Awards 2021!

Now in its 16th year, the Natural Health Beauty Awards unveils the very best beauty products in the natural beauty market, supported by top organic and ethical credentials. This year has been our most successful yet and we were so proud to celebrate this year's winners with you all.

The awards are a true reflection of the surging wellness economy, with consumers that are more and more demanding in their expectations – which is pushing all of us to do more, think bigger and make products that trailblaze for the wider health and beauty market.

For us, that means appraising packaging, assessing ingredients and finding new solutions to combat wastefulness.

We are so proud that Natural Health magazine continues to lead the way on natural beauty. These awards are our opportunity to showcase the very best products out there – ones that will exceed expectations in every way possible.

Find out below who was crowned as champions.
