

Riddle me this...

1. This is a furry animal, a tom is the name of the male. They're pets that rub up against you, and tend to have a long tail
2. If you travel over to England, at dinner time this might pass your lips. It usually swims in the water, and is something they serve with chips
3. What's at the head of an Elephant and the tail of a squirrel?
4. This animal can be quite long, but it doesn't have a great height. It can have deadly venom though, so beware because it can bite!
5. What jumps when it walks and sits when it stands?
