The Story

Our journey began almost 200 years ago with the arrival of our ancestors - Johann George and Anna Rosina Paech. They settled on this property here in the beautiful Adelaide Hills. Before our fields were filled with strawberries, they were home to many herds of happy dairy cattle.

Throughout the 1940s, 50s and 60s, the 4th generation of Paech's supplied milk to the entire region. It was the following fifth generation that planted our very first strawberry crops in 1969. Grant and Carol Paech transformed our family business from dairy to berry...from selling produce roadside to introducing our very first product — the strawberry jam and creating the iconic brand Beerenberg.

We have named our ice creamery THE DAIRY to honour this era of Beerenberg's story.
