

Interview follow-up email for Hiring manager / interviewer

Tip: If you have interviewed with an employer and you have been liaising directly with the interviewer throughout the entire process (e.g. there has been no hiring recruiter involved)– Use this template to send a polite follow-up email to the interviewer and show your professionalism, your enthusiasm for the role, and remain at the forefront of the interviewer’s thoughts.

Send this email a few hours after the interview, or the next morning if it was a late interview.
