2011 Nance's Vineyard Estate Zinfandel, Alexander Valley ($29)

545 cases produced. In the glass, this elegant and balanced wine has a medium to dark ruby color. Effusive aromas of ripe dark fruit, licorice, and black pepper greet the nose. Rich blackberry jam, brambleberry, and black cherry dance along the tongue with subtle notes of vanilla and baking spices. Moderate acidity keeps the fruit flavors from overwhelming the palate. Silky tannins linger on the juicy finish of our polished and properly restrained Estate Zinfandel.

Awards and accolades: 95 Points, Wine and Spirits Magazine (September 2014); Highest rated Zinfandel of the year, Top 100 List, Wine and Spirits Magazine (October 2014); 91 Points, Tasting Panel Magazine; 90 points, Wine Enthusiast

2011 Grist Vineyard Zinfandel, Dry Creek Valley ($29)

595 cases produced. A dark, concentrated wine with great intensity. Its perfume offers rich aromas of blackberry, black cherry, and plum and with subtle notes of warm spice and cigar box. Full-bodied with firm tannins, the palate delivers luscious dark fruit flavors with great length and texture. This wine will age well.

Awards and accolades: 89 points, Stephen Tanzer International Wine Cellar Review

2013 800 Vines Vineyard Pinot Noir Rosé, Russian River Valley ($25)

124 cases produced. With bright clarity and a lovely dark salmon color, this is rosé with terrific food pairing potential. Cranberry, grapefruit, and strawberry aromas give way to a palate of comparable flavors. Delicate and nuanced, yet with enough presence for you to take notice, this is a perfect wine for any occasion. Its vivacious acidity and dry finish will keep you coming back for more.

Awards and accolades: 90 points, Wine Enthusiast; Silver medal, San Francisco International Wine Competition

2013 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir Rosé ($25)

360 cases produced. Blended from three different well-established vineyards in the appellation including Bucher Vineyard, Jenna's Vineyard, and Nurmi Vineyard, this classically styled rosé is pale pink in color with brilliant clarity. Light and playful, it is scented with subtle notes of pink and red fruits. Delicate flavors of raspberry, strawberry, and citrus are balanced with lively acidity and a crisp finish. This is a terrific wine to sip on its own or with lighter fare, such as mild cheeses, oysters, or salads.

Awards and accolades: 90 points, PinotFile; Silver medal, San Francisco International Wine Competition

2013 Woods Vineyard Pinot Noir Rosé, Russian River Valley ($25)

379 cases produced. With a properly pale pink hue, this rosé has a complex perfume of rose petals and fruit. On the palate, Bing cherry, raspberry, nectarine, white peach and mandarin mingle with minerals and good acidity. It has a long, fruity finish that will leave you thirsty for more. Pair with roast chicken, ahi tuna, and mild cheeses.

Awards and accolades: 94 Points, Tasting Panel Magazine; Publisher's Pick, Tasting Panel Magazine; 91 points, Wine Enthusiast; Silver medal, San Francisco International Wine Competition

2013 Redwood Ranch Sauvignon Blanc, Alexander Valley ($22)

220 cases produced. Clean and bright, our Sauvignon Blanc is a pale straw color with a tinge of green around the rim. Tropical fruit aromas abound from the glass, specifically grapefruit, mango, and green papaya with nuances of fresh-cut grass and lemon peel. Good minerality and intense flavors of Meyer lemon and grapefruit dominate the palate. It has a long bright finish. This wine is an excellent match for sushi and raw seafood, as well as Thai and Vietnamese cuisine.

Awards and accolades: Gold Medal, The Fifty Best; 3.5 stars, Press Democrat
