

Easter Egg Hunt!

Your next Easter egg can be found where you play. Look in the place where you put toys away.

When dinner is over and the plates are a mess, clean all the dishes so the grownups don't stress.

You're on the right track to find all your eggs - the next clue is hidden under something with legs.

Are you ready for another Easter treat? Your next clue is hiding in the place where you eat.

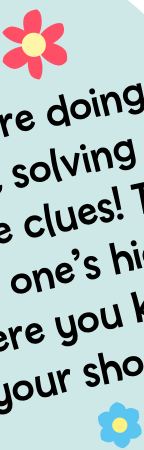

You've found another egg, but you're not done yet! The next clue is hiding where your hands get wet.

Read the next clue, take a moment to think. Now go to the place where you'll find a cold drink.

You're getting so close, just a few steps more. The next egg is hiding beside the front door.

You're doing great solving all these clues! The next one's hiding where you keep your shoes.

You've found all the clues, well done and happy Easter!

