AUSTRALIA 1920 KOOKABURRA SQUARE ONE PENNY TRIAL

x200%

When the Australian Government was considering the replacement of the large bronze halfpennies and pennies in 1919 with a smaller lighter coinage the branch of the Royal Mint in Melbourne struck patterns of the copper nickel and silver kookaburra halfpennies and pennies and distributed to the treasury parliamentarians VIP's and dignitaries.

Struck on a large lead flan at the Royal Mint Melbourne, this Australian undated King George V, c.1920 Square Kookaburra One Penny reverse trial is uniface. Kookaburra Pennies are of great historical significance and usually sell from $25,000 upwards from this period.

2022 QUOKKA SILVER PROOF

Quokkas are wallaby-like marsupials found mainly in the south west region of Western Australia, particularly Rottnest Island, an idyllic location 18 kilometres off the coast near Perth. About the same size of domestic cats, the quokka has thick, grey-brown fur, a broad face, shiny black eyes and round furry ears.

The reverse of this 2022 coin portrays a coloured image of a quokka and its young 'joey' amongst other wildlife, including Rottnest Island daisies.

BLACK SWAN MAALI SILVER ANTIQUED COLOURED

This first of its kind 2oz silver antiqued coloured coin features an original coloured painting of a black swan by Kevin Bynder, a proud Whadjuk-Yuet-Ballardong man.

The 2 dollar coin's reverse design represents maali descending on water with its enormous wings stretched skywards. The background is formed by stylised patterns of coloured dots inspired by a palette of ochre pigments used by Indigenous artists through time – reds and browns for the landscape, blues, greens and other hues for the water and its currents.

1000 YEARS OF THE BRITISH MONARCHY

MONARCHY - 50 PIECE SILVER SET

May 1973, marked the thousandth anniversary of the Coronation of King Edgar as the first King of England. Excluding the Cromwell period (1649-1658), England has never been without a sovereign.

Struck by John Pinches - the world's famous medallists in London, these sterling silver proof's feature every British monarch from King Edgar in 973 AD to H.M Queen Elizabeth II in 1973. Each of the 50 ingots weigh over 2 ounces each, a total of 3.3 kilo's.

Ten centuries have passed since Edgar, became King and his coronation marked the beginning of the greatest monarchical tradition the world has ever seen. Sustained by fifty rulers, powerful and weak, tyrannical and benevolent, aloof and compassionate.

William the Conqueror and the ruthless strength of the Normans. John, legendary bad king forced by his barons to seal the Magna Carta, Richard, fearless warrior of the crusades and Henry VII, wily diplomatist and brilliant administrator.

Elizabeth I, victorious against the might of Spain through to the beheading of Charles I and Pomp of Charles II, the political intrigues of the first four Georges to the peak of imperial power in the reign of Queen Victoria and the continued vitality of the monarchy under Elizabeth II.

This prestigious set is numbered 34 and is accompanied with a certificate of authenticity and all the paraphernalia including book with slipcase by Sir Arthur Bryant.
