PROCLAMATION CO

In late 1800 the Porpoise arrived at Sydney Cove with almost 4 tons (£550 worth) of 1oz copper, 1797 dated cartwheel pennies struck by Matthew Boulton. Although not confirmed, it is highly likely that the coins were accompanied by directions from the authorities back in England to rectify the unsatisfactory situation of varying exchange rates for the various coins then circulating in the colony.

In a bid to ensure that the newly arrived coins were not immediately traded back out, Governor Philip Gidley King issued a proclamation on the 19th November 1800 which artificially inflated the value of coins arriving in the colony of New South Wales. The value of the copper coins was effectively doubled. He also took the opportunity to set the values at which other silver and gold coins then in circulation were to trade. These latter valuations were probably in line with valuations derived by the English Treasury and provided for only a small premium above their nominal values.

AUSTRALIA 2021 YEAR SETS

50TH ANNIVERSARY ABORIGINAL FLAG

The 2021 uncirculated and proof six coin year sets commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Australian Aboriginal Flag - a touchstone of our modern history, an official Flag of Australia and a symbol of pride and unity for our First Nations People.

The Australian Aboriginal Flag was first flown on 12 July 1971 at a land rights march in Adelaide's Victoria Square, and appeared again the following year at the beginnings of the Aboriginal Tent Embassy in Canberra. In 1995 the flag was proclaimed an official Flag of Australia and has proudly flown outside official buildings across the nation ever since.

These sets feature a specially designed coloured two dollar coin inspired by Harold Thomas' iconic Australian Aboriginal Flag. The 5¢, 10¢, 20¢, 50¢, $1 & $2 are struck to the mint's world class standards of quality.
