75TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE END OF WWII 3 COIN PROOF SET

A collaboration between the Royal Australian Mint, The Royal Mint (UK) and New Zealand Post, this three coin silver proof set marks the 75th anniversary of the end of the Second World War. The detailed coins honour those lost by each nation while capturing the jubilation of the war's end and conveying optimism for a peaceful future.

Australia $5 1oz 99.9% Silver - featuring a woman releasing doves, representing peace, and origami cranes: a reference to the Children's Peace Monument in Hiroshima, Japan. The women's hair and garments fall to resemble a wreath wrapping each side of the coin. The coin's design represents the triumph of peace over war, and solemnly commemorates those who fell during the Second World War.

Great Britain £5 Silver - Expertly struck from .925 silver to a proof finish, the poignant design captures the magnitude of events and allows us to reflect on the immense struggle and sacrifice to achieve lasting peace.

New Zealand $1 1oz 99.9% Silver - Featuring a remembrance wreath comprised of New Zealand native plants harakeke (flax) flowers and ponga (fern) koru and fronds.

ZUYTDORP SHIPWRECK

The Royal Australian Mint has released the third coin in the Australian Shipwreck series of triangular shaped 1oz 99.9% silver one dollar coins, featuring the ill-fated Zuytdorp.

In 1711, Dutch East India Company trading ship, the Zuytdorp (meaning 'South Village'), set out from the Netherlands for Batavia on what was to be its third and final voyage.

After nearly seven months at sea with scurvy claiming the lives of many men, the Zuytdorp continued its journey from the Cape of Good Hope via the Indian Ocean.

QUEEN ELIZABETH II ACCESSION 2 COIN PROOF SET

6th February 2002, marked the 50th anniversary, or Golden Jubilee, of the Accession of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II to the Throne in 1952.

The accession followed the death of her father, King George VI while the Princess and her husband, Prince Phillip, were in Kenya early in a tour of the British Commonwealth. This tour, which was to include Australia and New Zealand, was being undertaken on behalf of the King who was gravely ill at the time of its commencement.

This 2 coin set was released by the Canberra Mint to celebrate the 50th anniversary in 2002 with a $100 1oz 99.9% pure gold proof and 50¢ silver proof.

Mint records indicate that just 1,500 sets were issued. The coins are housed, individually encapsulated, in a rich red velvet, hinged-lid presentation case with a replica crown affixed to the outside lid. The coins are complemented by a numbered, gold plated and frosted-finish inscription plate together with a certificate of authenticity.

AUSTRALIAN PLATINUM COINS

Though it has been treasured as an adornment for more than 3,000 years, it is only over the past two centuries that platinum has been widely recognised as the most precious of the three 'noble' metals - gold, platinum and silver.

While largely overshadowed by the romance and the riches associated with gold, platinum is by far the rarest of the precious metals. For every 17 ounces of gold and 120 ounces of silver, only one ounce of platinum is produced and usually ten tonnes of ore must be mined to yield that tiny amount.

Australia was the first major nation in modern times to announce its intention to produce a ounce-denominated platinum coin issue and since its first year of issue in 1989, the Australian Koala platinum coins have remained the leader in world investment coin markets.

(1914) COLLINS/ALLEN RAINBOW EMERGENCY POUND

This note was an interim emergency issue, printed at the Government Printing Office by the Government Stamp Printer, to meet the large demand for banknotes generated during the early years of World War I. It was known as the 'rainbow note' because of the colours in the design which merged from light blue ends through green to bright orange in the centre of the front.

'No' omitted, first prefix and suffix "E", R.20bf.
