

Island-Hopping

HOP ON THE BRIGHTLINE AND HEAD TO PALM BEACH ISLAND FOR A WEEKEND FILLED WITH POOLSIDE LOUNGING, FIVE-STAR TREATMENT, RETAIL THERAPY AND TANTALIZING CULINARY OFFERINGS.

BY ANNIE KURNICK AND LAUREN PIERRE-LOUIS

Wake Up in Paradise at The Breakers: Designed for personalized service and privacy, The Breakers provides the amenities and accommodations to give guests a glimpse of true paradise. With a jaw-dropping sea view, all visitors can enjoy delicacies from Main Street—The Breakers' newest culinary addition located on Royal Poinciana. Crafting off Henry Flagler's legacy, Main Street offers everything from coffee to sweets prepared with the resort's signature and unique recipes. Famed as one of the most iconic Palm Beach destinations for epic relaxation and limitless five-star amenities, The Breakers welcomes you home to its ultraluxurious, oceanside utopia. 1 S. County Road, Palm Beach, @thebreakers

Revamp and Rejuvenate: Hailing from New York City, iconic facial and aesthetic hot spot JECT touches down at The Colony Hotel through May. With a mission to spearhead the revolution of innovative medical-grade treatment, the rejuvenating oasis allows you to experience contemporary aesthetics at its utmost pivotal. Through specialized and proprietary therapies that enhance a natural look, experience a rare form of beautification in the hands of the brand that is changing the face of medical aesthetics. 155 Hammon Ave., Ste. 207, Palm Beach, @jectnyc

Need a Makeover? After a long day of lounging near the turquoise waters, Lotus Hair Studio invites you to prepare for your nightlife excursions with a beautifying treatment. With its high proficiency and top-tier service, the coveted salon destination is home to some of the best hairdressers in the community to give your locks a proper, post-ocean revamp. Offering everything from conditioning and scalp treatments to blowouts and makeup services, pamper yourself with the exclusive offerings at Lotus Hair Studio. 225 Royal Poinciana Way, Palm Beach, @lotushairstudio

Retail Therapy: While Palm Beach is home to some of the best pop-up and boutique shopping in Florida, splurge on an abundance of luxury retail merchandise at the town's most coveted storefronts. From bespoke dresses and shorts to gilded swimsuits, start your day with bags full of resort-style wear by Michelle Farmer. Famed for churning out upscale day-to-day staple pieces, Michelle Farmer's boutique embodies Palm Beach living at its best through a notably vibrant color palette and intricate sewing patterns. Still wanting more? Alvin Valley is your one-stop shop for couture eveningwear galore. Recently launching its first line of upscale footwear, the worldwide designer's Palm Beach location is home to the label's latest and greatest ready-to-wear. Whether searching to make a poolside style statement or wanting to turn heads during a beachside supper, make sure to pack light because these retail havens will have you covered from day to night. Michelle Farmer: 105 N. County Road, Palm Beach, @michellefarmercollaborate; Alvin Valley: 36 Via Mizner, Palm Beach, @alvinvalley

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP RIGHT: PHOTOS COURTESY OF THE BREAKERS, PALM BEACH; COURTESY OF VIA COQUINA, PALM BEACH; COURTESY OF VIA COQUINA, PALM BEACH; COURTESY OF VIA COQUINA, PALM BEACH

Clockwise from top left: The bar at Le Bilboquet offers an array of satisfying libations; Le Bilboquet's charming courtyard makes for the perfect date night destination; the tuna tartare is one of the eatery's most popular dishes; indulge your sweet tooth with a delicately sweet dessert. Opposite page: Brunch selections from Le Bilboquet Palm Beach; explore through Via Coquina's Palm Beach-inspired offerings, from jewelry to home decor, linens and more.

Top-Tier Talismans: No time well spent is complete without returning to the norm with a collection of keepsakes to invigorate the great memories. Kim Renk's shop offers dazzling goods to make the impression last by providing the most sought-after, made-to-last arm candy in Palm Beach. From gold-dipped talismans and zodiac charms to porcelain earrings and colorful enamel bracelets, the accessory store is home to the master jeweler's creations alongside a collection of dresses and pashminas. And for the people who prefer to embellish a home rather than a wrist, Via Coquina not only offers high-end, handcrafted jewelry but unique home gifts that embody the free spirit of Palm Beach. Armed with an eclectic-yet-authentic lineup of home decor, dinnerware and table linens, the Mediterranean-inspired storefront will turn your abode into the paradise you once vacationed in. Kim Renk: 219 Worth Ave., Palm Beach, @kimrenkjewelry; Via Coquina: 32 Via Mizner, Palm Beach, @viacoquina

Galleries Galore: Palm Beach is known for luring in a crowd with a savvy eye for luxury, aesthetics and art. Within the recent announcement of Christie's exclusive pop-up and Ron Cavalier's two new gallery sites, this influx of visionaries is more notable than ever. Serving as the most buzzed-about galleries of the moment, Ron Cavalier will debut pieces by Kadir Lopez Nieves and beyond, while Christie's touches down with private sales on contemporary artwork, watches and artifacts. Whether looking to expand a collection or indulge in a showcase of ultracreative eye candy, Palm Beach is Florida's hottest spot for this season's galleries galore. Christie's: 249 Worth Ave., Palm Beach, @christiesinc; Ron Cavalier: 235c Worth Ave., Palm Beach, cavaliergalleries.com

Satisfy Your Appetite:

After spending a day adventuring, top it off with an elite dish to sate your appetite. Le Bilboquet steps in to provide a new sense of gourmet food for you to enjoy. Hailing from Manhattan with a decidedly French flair, Le Bilboquet brings home a vast range of the finest French cuisine you can't find anywhere else in Palm Beach. From Ossetra caviar to the famed Le Poulet Cajun and La Bouillabaisse Royale, take a step into the world of elegant culinary creations and savor a flavorful and zesty adventure. 245a Worth Ave., Palm Beach, @lebilboquetpalmbeach ■

