

Home Digital Magazines Newswires Sections Our Team Subscribe Mann Publications

FEATURES • SUNSHINE STATE OF MIND

Dazzle Into The New Year With Via Coquina's Latest Jewelry Collections

② January 6, 2023

Kick off the New Year in style with Via Coquina's new, exquisite jewelry collections featuring designers from Greece, Italy and Capri. These exquisite pieces will elevate any outfit and are the perfect accessory for a special occasion.

Shop these collections, and more, at Via Coquina's store locations in Palm Beach or Sag Harbor, as well as online at viacoquina.com.

About The Brands

Roberto Faraone Mennella and Amedeo Scognamiglio are the award winning designers behind Faraone Mennella by RFMAS. They draw inspiration for their acclaimed jewelry collections from the classical Italian heritage. The artistic environment of their upbringing along with their eclectic energy, fuel New York City's pop culture and Fashion society. Each creation is projected to the future, involuntarily new trends while embracing eternal classical beauty. Expanding from the "classic" jewels to everyday wear to the most exceptional one of a kind "Couture" pieces. Faraone Mennella always knows how to surprise and make a statement.

The first Chantecler boutique opened on the island of Capri in 1947, steps from the Piazzetta. A favorite of Grace Kelly, Liz Taylor and Maria Callas, Chantecler epitomizes the glamour of La Dolce Vita. Today Chantecler's jewelry is celebrated around the world for its workmanship and quality.

LALAoUNIS jewelry is renowned for luxurious gold creations steeped in history. Ilias Lalaounis, a fourth-generation jeweler, launched his first collections in the 1950s and become one of the most acclaimed jewelers in Greece. His jewelry, crafted from 18 and 22 karat gold which he called "the most human material", was inspired by the art and culture of Minoan, Mycenean and Byzantine civilizations.