The Weekend Learning Islamic Studies series has defined the way Islamic Studies has been taught in Schools and Madrassahs since it was first published in 2007 and continue to be the preferred curriculum for Islamic Schools all across North America. The Weekend Learning series provides a well-planned curriculum with topics based on the Qur'an, Sunnah, seerah, nabis and rasuls, sahabas and sahabiyas, aqidaah, fiqh, ideology, ethics, Islamic history and much more. Many topics of contemporary nature like Islam in today's world, Muslim identity in North America, Islam at the workplace, Islamophobia and racism, dating and relationships, etc. are also covered.

This thirteen-part series from Junior Kindergarten to Level 11-12 takes students from the basics of Islam to more advanced topics over the years. Each book in the series focuses on establishing a connection between deen and dunya, with teachings drawn from the Qur'an and Sunnah. The lessons in the textbooks are presented in a logical, systematic manner to suit the teaching needs of Islamic schools with age appropriate material. Each level includes sufficient lessons to cover the entire school year and each chapter is designed to be covered in a 50-60 minute class, making this series a perfect tool for teachers seeking concise, well-organized material of interest and relevance for their students.

The Weekend Learning curriculums also include the best-selling Juz Amma for School Students (available with and without transliteration), Juz Amma workbooks, Seerah books, Activity books, Arabic learning books and more for different grade levels. Lastly, there is a separate Islamic Studies curriculum for Francophone schools.

The "Learn About Islam" series from Safar Publications has been designed over the last 15 years and covers elements from Qur'ānic stories, Islamic tenets of faith (ʿaqīdah), religious rulings (fiqh) and major episodes from the life of Prophet Muḥammad, as well as areas of personal development, in an age-appropriate manner.

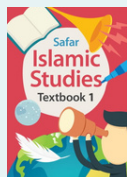

The curriculum includes textbooks, workbooks and Teacher's guides from Grade 1 to 8. The beautifully colored and illustrated textbooks have been designed to ensure that the lessons are enjoyable for children as well as being comprehensive and reliable with content built only on material from the Qur'an and Hadīth. Each textbook comes with schemes of work and also has a workbook with two tiers of assessment, based on Bloom's Taxonomy of learning objectives and questions designed to encourage thought, expression and connection with the teaching material.

The "Learn About Islam" (Islamic Studies) curriculum from Safar Publications is also extensively cross-linked with other parts of the curriculum, namely "Learn to Read" (Tajweed), "Learn by Heart" (Surah & Dua Memorization) and "Learn Arabic". Together, the series aims to build children's essential Islamic knowledge, cultivate good character and instill consciousness about Allah and Islam.

Goodword

Goodword Books is an award-winning publisher of Islamic books that endeavors to present children's books which provide a solid foundation of Islamic and moral values through themes carefully chosen from the Quran and other Islamic sources. In this way children not only learn the ethical values conveyed by the message of Islam, but they also become stimulated to learn about Islamic ideals when they grow up.

The Madinah Arabic Reader series from Goodword Books is based on the Arabic course as taught at the Islamic University of Madinah and has been designed to impart knowledge of classical Arabic through applied grammar. Each lesson, based on a conversation, illustrates distinctive language patterns. These patterns are elucidated by a variety of helpful exercises. The vocabulary ranges from classical and Quranic Arabic to modern Arabic. This series of books is currently being utilized at various schools to prepare students for the University of London (UK) GCE O-Level and A-Level examinations.

The Goodword Arabic Writing Books are perfect for children to practice their Arabic writing skills. Every letter is shown brightly and on every page children have the opportunity to trace the letter they have just learned to help bring out the latent calligraphers in them.

Islamic Book Fairs for Schools

Our growing catalog of over 250+ Islamic story books, activity books, games, quizzes and puzzles are an excellent source for teachers to find supplementary materials for their classes and for children to find hours or days of leisure material that are not just fun but will help them build their knowledge and appreciation of Islam.

We are happy to introduce our school book fair program where you get a share of the proceeds from the book sales to help your school. Use the funds for building a library, purchase classrooms resources or anything that your school needs.
