Three Year No Questions Asked-Accidental Breakage Warranty

Accidents happen. We want to get you back on the ice as soon as possible. If your rod is unusable due to an accidental breakage complete the form below and return it along with all pieces of your rod to the address listed below at your expense. Your rod will be replaced with an equal rod for a $50 flat fee (Fee of $75 for open water rods). Standard 3-5 week build times will apply. If you wish to make changes to your design, they must be made by phone and additional charges may apply. Valid only for rods purchased within the past three years. Non-transferable, if you purchase a Tuned Up Custom Rod from a private party, you are not eligible for this warranty.

If your rod falls outside of the Three Year Warranty period, you will still be eligible to get a replacement rod for 40% off the regular sales price of your replacement rod. The age of your rod is determined by characteristics built into the rod and used by Tuned Up Custom Rods to age rod builds.
