Welcome! We are pleased to be your partner in consignment!

How it works: Blossom & Buds determines the selling price of your items based on its current retail value and prices roughly 30-50% of that, taking into account various factors.

Items for consignment should be in the season for which we are collecting. Items should be freshly laundered, free of stains, rips, or damage; and odor free. They must also be in current style, roughly no more than 3 years old. A detailed list of brands and seasons is available on our website. We reserve the right to mark down prices as we see fit - we do not have automatic markdowns, but will generally reduce the price after 45 days.

You will receive 50% of the selling price for any items sold, minus the item fee (Items $10-$30 have a $1 item fee, items $30 and up have a $2 item fee, jewelry $10 and less have a .50 fee). You can redeem your account balance in one of three ways: Store credit, payout via Paypal/Venmo for a $1 fee, or a check for a $2 fee. You can also request a cash payout if you have $30 or less. Payouts are done by request and processed roughly once a week. We do not mail checks unless requested at time of payout. Funds not claimed within 1 year from the end of the last consignment period will be forfeited.

After 90 days, items unsold or unclaimed are considered expired, become property of Blossom & Buds, and may be donated to local charities. YOUR ACCOUNT WILL NOT BE CREDITED OR REIMBURSED FOR ITEMS SOLD AFTER THEIR 90-DAY EXPIRATION DATE. If you wish to pick up unsold items, you may do so after 60 days but BEFORE the 90 days. There is a $5 fee per item if you wish to pick up anything before the 60 day mark. It is your responsibility to manage their dates and pull items off the floor accordingly. Due to space limitations, we are unable to pull and hold items for you.

- I have thoroughly looked through my items for stains, damages, missing pieces or defects. I understand that if something was not caught at the time of the appointment I have THREE days to pick up the items or they will be donated.

Please read and check each item:

- I understand that items are left at my own risk and Blossom & Buds assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to my items by handling, fire, theft, accident, or any other cause.
- Blossom & Buds may pull items depending on season, space, or otherwise with its sole discretion.
- Blossom & Buds reserves the right to donate items found to be soiled, damaged, or defective.
- Blossom & Buds reserves the right to donate unsold items to charity after the first 90 days. This means I will not be able to retrieve items after the 90-day consignment period.
- Due to space limitations, we are unable to hold expired and damaged items for a later pickup and they will be donated.
- I will review my emailed list and notify Blossom & Buds of any discrepancies within 48 hours and note that I will have 3 days from the date of the email to pick up any items listed that were deemed unsuitable for sale.
