Graphic Design

My name is Paulina Rosas, and I live and work in El Paso Texas. I have a degree in graphic design from the University of Texas at El Paso. I make logos, informational designs, stationary, packaging, newsletters, and everything in between.

My forte is informational and packaging design, as well as social media.

I am a self taught website Shopify, Square Space, and Square up/Weebly. Though I know most website builders.

Websites that sell products with low volume in high demand are my forte.

I also work with social media/ meta business shop integrations, and new subscriber pop-ups.
