

The Chronological Bible Reader

Through the Bible Chronologically In a Year

This reading guide takes you through the Bible in historical order: Samuel, Kings and Chronicles are harmonized and the prophets and poetic books are read in their historical position in this harmonized record; the gospels are also harmonized and the epistles fitted into their position in the account in the Acts.

Both morning and evening readings provide Old and New Testament meditation each day. The reader thus sees God's redemption in Christ more plainly during the entire year.

We suggest keeping notes on your reading. Write your own daily "head lines." The use of such aids as Halley's Pocket Bible Handbook, E. J. Young's Introduction to The Old Testament and a Bible atlas will help you to get a clearer understanding of the record. Do not fail to apply the message from God in each day's readings. Try to write down one thing God would have you believe or do.
