

HELPING ALL WE CAN...ONE AT A TIME.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Deanna Wallace
AAO Executive Director

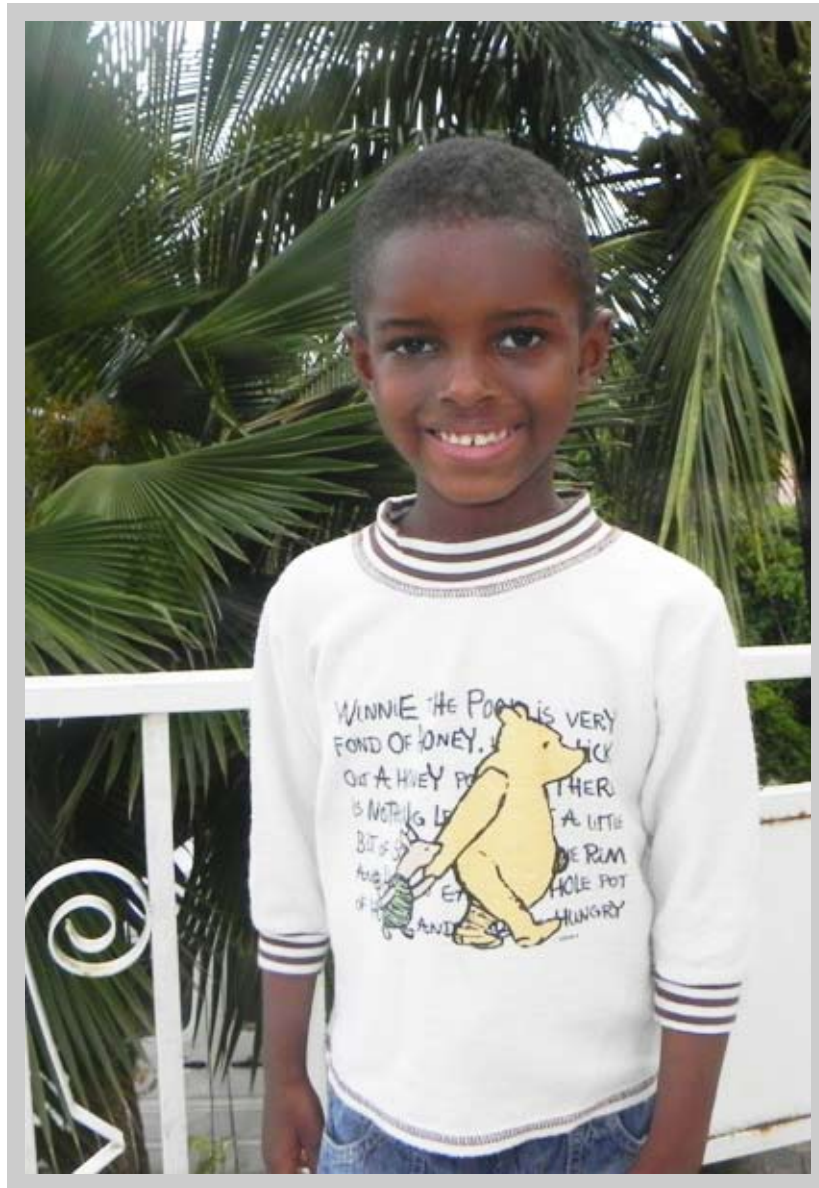

Every day, I see the beautiful faces of the children in our care, and I feel a pang of worry. I don't know what the future holds for these kids if we don't have the funds to care for them. We've cut costs in every possible way, but we still find ourselves coming up short on our budget needs. This month, we need another $4500 for operating costs to make ends meet. If you're able, please help us today by making a gift...

One of the amazing children in our care is Arnold, who came to live at All As One in December 2011, when he was just over 1 year old. He's now 5, and doing very well. Arnold has a sunny disposition and a beautiful smile -- and he smiles a lot! He's doing well in kindergarten, and his teacher describes him as "a clever boy who participates well in class." Arnold's caregiver says that Arnold "gets along with the other children, and has respect for authority. He also loves to play ball games."

Arnold cannot remember any other family or home besides All As One. He is completely dependent on us to continue to thrive. WE can't do it without YOU. Please help to keep Arnold and the rest of our children in a safe and happy home. Your help is vital, and urgently needed now!

★ THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT 4 ★

The Kids are Alright 4 was held in the amphitheatre of Said Business School, University of Oxford, on the 2nd of July. We had 8 local bands donating their talents, and volunteers running a great BBQ and raffle with amazing prizes. We made a profit of just over £2500, some of which will be shared with two children's charities in Oxford -- Bellhouse-Drayson Ward and Paediatric Diabetes, both at the John Radcliffe Hospital. It was a great night, with everyone up and dancing to the Peerless Pirates and The Long Insiders. Even a brief shower of rain didn't dampen spirits.

We want to thank the bands and volunteers, as well as Anthony Kelly and Ettaline Hill, for all of their hard work in making this event a success!

The Kids are Alright 5 will be held in the same venue, on July 1, 2017. Put the date on your calendar, and contact Ettaline at ukdirector@allasone.org for more details.
