

DRINK LOCAL, SUPPORT LOCAL

WELCOME

Greetings beer lovers!

There's no denying it: the craft beer scene is booming like never before. With new breweries popping up all over the place and old favorites continuing to innovate and expand their offerings, it seems like the sky's the limit when it comes to what's possible in the world of beer.

And this month, the sky truly is the limit! Introducing our 'Sky's The Limit' 6-Pack, featuring 6 great craft beers from Alberta breweries- all of them with a primarily blue can, to signify just how far the craft beer industry has risen.

From juicy IPAs to tart sours to rich stouts, there's a craft beer out there for everyone. And with so many talented brewers pushing the boundaries and experimenting with new ingredients and techniques, there's never been a better time to be a beer enthusiast.

THIS MONTH'S SELECTION

BLOOTY CALL WHEAT BEER

SEA CHANGE, EDMONTON

Sea Change Brewing's "Blooty Call" is a unique and flavorful wheat beer that is infused with blueberries and earl grey tea. The aroma of this beer is dominated by the fruity scent of fresh blueberries, which is balanced out nicely by the subtle aroma of earl grey tea. Upon taking a sip, the blueberry flavor takes center stage, providing a sweet and slightly tart taste that is reminiscent of freshly picked berries. The earl grey tea provides a subtle bitterness and a slight citrusy flavor that complements the blueberries nicely.

It is light enough to enjoy on a hot summer day, but has enough complexity to be savored slowly and appreciated by beer enthusiasts.
