

DRINK LOCAL, SUPPORT LOCAL

WELCOME

School is BACK, baby! We're not talking about elementary or Junior/Senior High classes (although having the kids back in school sure is nice), we're talking about Olds College, more importantly their Brewery program!

Sandy Lane Liquor is a proud supplier of the Student Brews series. Consider each batch a future brew master's "rookie card". You can check out the entire selection of our Student Series HERE, but remember, once they're gone, they're gone! A limited supply is available, and we only bring in a small quantity of each brew to make sure there's enough to go around.

This November 6 pack features six new brews from the Student Series, the first of the 2023/2024 class. Join us in celebrating tomorrow's brew masters, and raise a glass to this classy class!

While we've got you, we've still got a handful of our Advent calendars remaining. Each calendar has 24 unique beers, from 24 different Alberta breweries. Follow along with us on Instagram, TikTok and Facebook for daily reveals, tasting notes and info about the breweries. Supplies are limited, so once they're gone, they're gone! THIS MONTH'S SELECTION

NOT TODAY HEIFER

JASON POPESKU, OLDS COLLEGE BREWMASTER

This classic german-style Hefe has those standard banana and clove notes plus some chamomile to help you relax. Hefeweizens are some of Tom's favorite beers, easy to drink yet with enough flavor to make you sit back and savor each sip.

KINGSLAYER

KELTON NOVAK, PREECEVILLE, SK

A balanced beer of malty sweetness and bitterness with chocolate, caramel & biscuit notes.

Kelton tried his hand at short-story writing on the side of the can, give it a read while you sip on this chewable Amber ale.

$17.50/ 4pk

GROOVING ON 'EM

DAVID STANICH, CALGARY, AB

An American wheat ale, the standard malty mouthfeel & sweetness are toned down with a citric acid kick from the grapefruit. There is a very, very slight hop to the beer, which helps round-out the overall taste profile. Wheat ales typically have a touch more weight to them, but this has a pleasant lightness to it, likely to due with the addition of the grapefruit.

THIS MONTH'S SELECTION

CHICKADEE ISA

SEAN BIERI, OLDS COLLEGE ASST BREWER

This beer, much like its namesake, is small in stature but memorable in flavor. Easy drinking, light and crisp with bright hop flavors of ripe fruits, citrus and pineapple, it finishes with a cracker-like maltiness.

$17.50/ 4pk

JITTERBUG

KELSEY LIJDSMAN, CALGARY, AB

This is a cold brew coffee infused porter. It's not chewable like most porters, instead favoring a lighter body. Don't let that fool you though; it is jam-packed with flavor! Chocolate, caramelized fruit & roasted malt will help Jolt you in your seat. At 3.1%, this is a great Sunday-morning-"stay in bed dear, I'm making pancakes"-beer.

$17.50/ 4pk

WHEATFIELD COUNTY

KORY COLLINS, LANGDON, AB

Golden-yellow in the glass, this is the epitome of a great, quaffable beer. Even on the malt and light on the hops, this hefeweizen has notes of gooseberry & a slight spice. Delicious, slammable & a damn fine beer. What more can you ask for?
