

KOMREBI & BONSEKI

Denis Guidone

SERAX

Denis Guidone brilliantly merges Japanese art with Western influences. For his new collection of Komorebi and Bonseki vases for Serax, the Italian designer has drawn on the ancient Japanese arts bonseki and ikebana - miniature landscapes with gardens, hills and mountains, and 'living' flower arrangements.

DENIS GUIDONE

Multi award-winning Italian designer Denis Guidone divides his time between architecture and design, commuting between Milan and Tokyo. Fascinated by the contrasts between the East and the West, he merges the aesthetics of these two extremes with unconventional and strict precision into an elegant, eye-catching appearance.
