“ROOSEVELT IS LIKELY TO BE LONG REMEMBERED FOR HIS STRENGTH OF WILL, WHICH OUT OF PHYSICAL WEAKNESS DEVELOPED A ROBUST BODY; FOR HIS BREADTH OF INTEREST AND SYMPATHY, BORN OF ORIGINAL THOUGHT AND CONVICTION; FOR HIS FEARLESS AGGRESSIVENESS AND HIS LOYALTY TO THE TRUTH AS HE SAW IT. THESE ARE THE QUALITIES A PORTRAIT BUST OF HIM SHOULD RECALL AND REFLECT, AND THESE ARE THE QUALITIES I FIND SUGGESTED BY MR. BAKER'S ROOSEVELT, WHICH THEREFORE SEEMS TO ME WORTHY OF COMMENDATION FOR USE IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.”

This relief was designed to commemorate the call to arms of the American people in 1917 "that Government of the People, by the People, for the People, shall not perish from the Earth." With a tablet or plate beneath it bearing their names, this subject is a splendid memorial to those who served in the Great War.

A wooden moulding to support the Spirit of 1917 either in Ivory or Bronze Color is $2.00 extra.

Hail! thou great Song of Peace,
Nations are singing!
Out from the war-swept years,
Up from the vale of tears,
We hear it ringing.
Joyous the clarion call!
Oh, may the God of all
Bless what it's bringing!

From the Peace Anthem of Clara Endicott Sears.

On page 8, several Brackets and Pedestals are illustrated. Pedestal No. 6651A and Wall Bracket No. 6801 are adapted to this statue.

The sturdy young American who stood in the foreground of the first German official photograph of American prisoners and defied his captors inspired Mr. Dallin to model this statuette which did its "bit" in the Liberty Loan campaign.

Pedestal No. 6651A or Wall Bracket No. 6801 is suitable for this statuette.
