BANANAGRAMS STARS & STRIPES To Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Top Banana!

SET UP

- Place all 152 tiles (including the Liberty tiles) facedown in the center of the table. These form the BUNCH.
- Each player now takes their 'STARTING TILES' from the BUNCH:

PLAYERS	2 to 4	5 to 6	7 to 8
STARTING TILES	21	15	11

HOW TO PLAY

Objective: Be the first to use all your letters.

- To start, any player calls out "SPLIT!" Everyone simultaneously turns their tiles faceup and races to arrange them in their own intersecting word grid. Words must read left to right horizontally, or top to bottom vertically. You may rearrange your grid at any time, and as often as you like.

Liberty Tiles! If a player has a Liberty Tile, it can be used as any letter the player chooses. Like all other tiles, Liberty Tiles must be used as part of a word. Each tile can represent only one letter at a time when placed in a grid. If a player rearranges their grid, the Liberty Tile may represent a new letter.

- Whenever a player places their last faceup letter in their grid, that person calls out "PEEL!" Every player—including the one saying "PEEL"—then takes another tile from the BUNCH.
- At any time during the game, you may call out "DUMP!" and put one of your letters back, facedown in the BUNCH. However, you MUST take three more tiles in exchange! This has no effect on other players and there's no limit to the number of times you may DUMP.

WINNING

When the BUNCH is depleted to fewer tiles than number of players, the first person to use ALL their letters in a connected word grid and calls out "BANANAS!" wins that hand and is declared TOP BANANA! At the end of the hand, the winning player must announce what letter(s) each Liberty Tile represents, so that other players can inspect the winning grid.

If the winning grid contains a misspelled word, proper noun, abbreviation or other unacceptable word, the other players call out "ROTTEN BANANA!" and that player is out of the game. The ROTTEN BANANA's letters are returned to the BUNCH facedown. Play resumes for the other players until one of them calls out "BANANAS!"

OTHER WAYS TO PLAY

Best of...

BANANAGRAMS is fast and fun! Sometimes, it's over before you've had your fill. If that's the case, play the 'best of three or five hands. Whoever wins the most games is TOP BANANA!

Banana Smoothie – Perfect for when you're in no mood to rush!

1. Place all the tiles facedown on the table.
2. Keeping them facedown, divide them equally among players.
3. Play the regular BANANAGRAMS game, but with NO peeling or dumping.
4. The first player to use ALL their letters and call out "BANANAS!" wins. If the game ends in a stalemate or tie, the player with the longest word in their grid becomes TOP BANANA. If you have the same number of letters in your longest words, play another hand!

Banana Café – Great for playing while waiting in restaurants!

1. Put the BANANAGRAMS game on the table, leaving all tiles in the pouch.
2. Each player takes 21 tiles from the pouch without peeking.
3. Play BANANAGRAMS the usual way, with dumping, but NO peeling.
4. The first player to use ALL their letters and call out "BANANAS!" wins the game.

Banana Solitaire – Perfect for when you need a little alone time!

1. Place all the tiles facedown.
2. Take 21 tiles and play as usual.
3. Try to beat your own best time using all the letters—or try to make as few words as possible! This can be a relaxing way to hone your BANANAGRAMS skills.

From lowercases to small spaces—two more games that'll put stars in your eyes!
