Using the tiles given, complete this mini-crossword so that five words read across the grid, and five different words read down. Clues are given for all the words, but they are in random order.

The Clues

* Fruit that comes in bunches
* Gives money to charity
* Musical melodies
* Not cold
* Opposite of “no”
* Sticky stuff used in making roads
* Structure built by beavers
* Sweet baked item shaped like a ring
* Sweet stuff produced by bees
* Unit of length that’s a little longer than a yard

FACT OR FICTION?
The average American kid eats more than 1,000 bananas before he or she turns 5.
