

❗ Before you start to apply your new Decowall wall stickers, have a good read through these simple instructions and remember:

- If your wall has been recently painted, do NOT apply your wall stickers! Wait at least three weeks after painting to apply stickers.
- You won't be able to reposition the sticker after removing the backing paper, so plan carefully where you are going to put your graphic before doing so.
- Graphic Stickers are not reusable items so please take great care. They can be easily removed but may become damaged in the process.
- Take care not to damage paintwork when removing stickers from painted walls. you may find it easier to use a hairdryer which softens the adhesive. Please use a needle or a toothpick to safely remove the stickers from the wall.
- Avoid bent or rough surface. Place them on the smooth and dust-free surface.

You will need...

How to apply...

1. You can apply your wall sticker to any smooth flat surface but make sure it is clean of dirt or grit and completely dry.

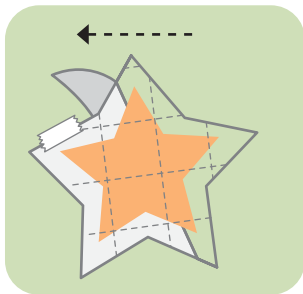

2. Lay the sticker on a flat surface and attach the clear transfer film. Firmly press the clear transfer film on by rubbing it with a credit card/squeegee. This is to make sure the sticker transfers to the clear transfer film.

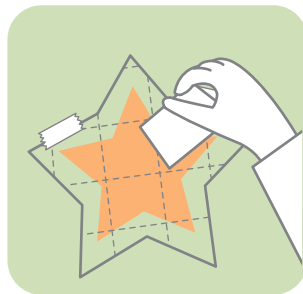

3. Cut roughly around the individual graphic.

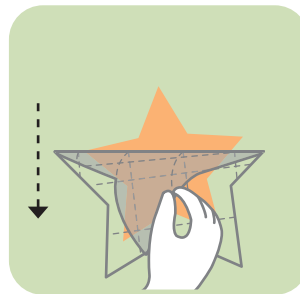

4. Position the stickers with masking tape onto surface. For large stickers, you can tape all along the top edge to act as a hinge.

5. Lift graphic and carefully peel the backing paper to half way, making sure all the graphic is on the transfer paper. If the vinyl is stuck to the paper, smooth the paper back onto the transfer film until it sticks and then retry.

6. Use a squeegee to remove any air bubbles trapped inside. Please note that the vinyl is very sticky and keep the rest away while applying.

7. Wait at least 10 minutes and then peel back the edge of clear transfer film and remove, pulling slowly and carefully away at 180 degrees to the vinyl. If the vinyl pulls away with the transfer film, use the squeegee a bit more.

8. Finished and satisfied with the decoration? You are now a certified designer. Try different designs and create your own art work. Thank you!
