

INTERESTING PLACES IN AND AROUND BALTIMORE

THANK YOU, Patti Chappell, for compiling this list of potential SIC venues!!

Museums:

- BMA, works well with a tour of a specific exhibition. Can be guided by their docent or an RI member.
- The Walters, also works well with a tour of a specific exhibition with their docent or an RI member.
- The Evergreen House on Charles Street
- The Museum of History & Culture, formerly the Historical Society. Again, a particular exhibition may draw more people.
- The Visionary Arts Museum
- The Museum of Industry
- The Jewish Museum of MD
- The Lillie Carroll Jackson Civil Rights Museum
- The Peabody Library
- The B & O Museum
- The Clifton Mansion, home of Johns Hopkins in Clifton Park
- The Hampton Mansion in Towson
- Genealogy Museum in Columbia

Smaller Museums & Historical Sites:

- Mount Clare, Homewood House, Star Spangled Banner Flag House, E.A. Poe House, Peale Museum.

Outdoor Venues:

- Ladew Gardens
- Emory Grove
- The Lexington Market
- Greenmount Cemetery
- Fort McHenry National Monument
- Rawlings Conservatory
- The Maryland Zoo
- Patterson Park: the pagoda & the Audubon Garden
- Brookside Gardens, Wheaton Md
- Glenstone Museum, Potomac Md
- National Botanical Gardens in DC

Of course, DC has many museums and outdoor venues, too many to list. Requires a bit more planning. I'm sure that other folks have other ideas.

PS: Other types of venues to consider:

- Outdoor dining restaurants
- Outdoor summer theater productions
- Nearby dairy farms for homemade ice cream
- Scavenger Hunt of Baltimore
