Design to redefine.

Understanding the needs of customers through keen observation is at the heart of everything we do at BW Interiors.

We believe that everyone is unique – with different backgrounds and experiences in life write their own unique stories.

We blend in your special story elements to tailor-make an inspiring interior and tell your brand stories in unexpectedly intriguing ways.

With years of experience in large-scale interior design projects, especially in commercial interior design projects, we have established our own unique set of innovative and high-quality interior design standards and solutions. We believe that only with a heart that seeks perfection on the smallest of details will help us deliver quality projects and build lasting trust with our clients.

BW Interiors provides a one-stop, comprehensive commercial interior design service based on the key principles of practicality and compatibility, with an emphasis on providing user-centric spatial planning. Through our design works, you will understand the enthusiasm we have for our craft and our pursuit of quality. We excel at space branding by applying our interior design expertise to your brand to help shape the future of your interior spaces, both strategically and aesthetically.

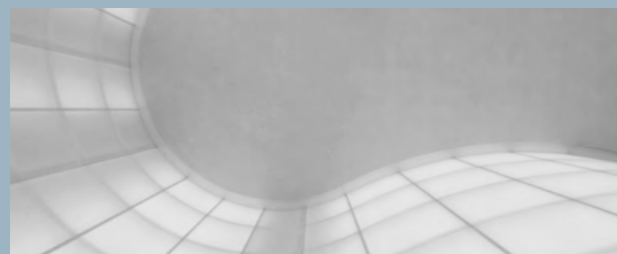

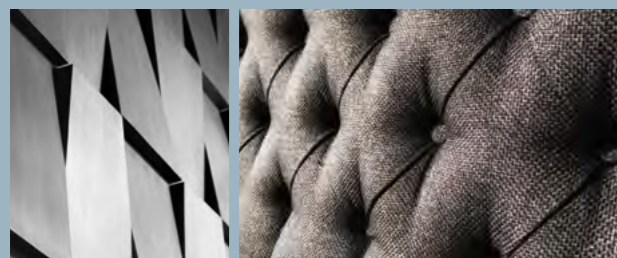

Your One-Stop Solution

BW Interiors consists of various talents from Project Management, Interior Design and On-site Management. With our diverse services, we provide comprehensive solutions to interior design and build, furniture, kitchen equipment, F&B licensing services, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering, Mechanical Ventilation and Air Conditioning, Plumbing & Drainage, Network System, Audio and Video System, Security, etc. With our all-round expertise, we can design customized workspace for you.

Commerical Design Project

We create the future of your interior spaces.

Over the years, there are few project types that BW Interiors has not encountered – and mastered. Our broad oeuvre includes commercial and retail developments, veterinary, medical and health buildings, restaurants, private clubs and residences, transportation facilities and infrastructure, education buildings, interiors, and master-planning schemes.

BW Interiors creates the future of your interior spaces, whether office, restaurant, retail shops, medical centers, gym rooms, beauty shops or any space in between. We work collaboratively to create distinctive experiences that express our expertise, creative instincts and local insights to deliver against the guiding principles of your brand.

Not only have we cared about the future of interior spaces, but also the future of our planet.

Our practice embraces an innovative design approach with the latest intelligent building ideas and, wherever possible, advanced thinking in sustainability, energy conservation and the creation of architecture with a minimal environmental footprint.

Our focus on Branding.

More than just design, our branding team helps clients conceptualize, name and position their brands, firmly nesting them in exactly the right market.

With comprehensive research, collaborative ideation sessions, passion, and thoughtful design, our creative team crafts unique stories that spark imagination and make lasting impressions. We make sure these stories resonate with guests from the moment they step into the property with memorable spaces and exceptional signature experiences.

From brand strategies and advertising campaigns to digital tactics and marketing plans, our solutions are guided by audience research and insights, driven by creativity, and developed in close collaboration with our partners. By getting the right message to the right audience, we can help you build connections and create lasting change.

For more than 10 years, BW Interiors has helped partners tell their stories in ways that inspire action and make a difference. We know your organization's challenges and goals are unique. As a full-service marketing and creative agency, we're ready to learn what matters to you and move your mission forward.

We understand the complexity of applying for restaurant licence, our F&B engineering solutions have a comprehensive scope that encompasses electrical, mechanical, ventilation, and gas regulations to meet the legal and operational demands of restaurant licences.

PROFESSIONAL SITE INSPECTION

We conduct on-site analysis on the spot to evaluate whether the shop complies with the licensing regulations, followed by detailed feasibility study, building and structural plans for the Buildings Department and the Planning Department for review and approval.

02

DESIGN & BUILD

Design themes and plan space according to clients' preference that also comply with the regulations and guidelines from the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department.

03

LICENCE APPLICATION

Draft application procedures and details, and contact the relevant parties to finalize application plan.

04

AUTHORIZED PERSON / RSE

Application for a restaurant licence must be submitted with certificates issued by qualified persons or RSE. Relevant certificate documents include: UBW 1, 2, CAT 1&2. Certificate of Compliance A, B, C, D, Certificate of Fire Services Installation and Equipment, Certificate of Ventilation and Ventilation Equipment, Certificate of Building Structural Safety, etc.
