Author

Serena Y. Li is the founder of Duck Duck Books and author of its first books. Her books teach children from newborn to five about diversity, equity, and inclusion. Each book is available in English, Traditional Chinese-English, Simplified Chinese-English, Cantonese-English, and Spanish-English.

Designer

Branden Leung grew up on Oahu, but fell in love with the PNW where he now raises his three children with his wife, Jenny. He grew up in a multicultural environment and spent much of his early career volunteering for nonprofits, while honing his graphic design skills. Now he uses his talents as a designer to create stories that families can enjoy together.

Illustrator

Sabrina Deigert is a biracial Taiwanese American illustrator. In her spare time, she likes admiring mountains and going hard on educational podcasts. Sabrina can be found around Los Angeles, Seattle, or sometimes Taiwan.
