Author

Ruthie Wu is a proud Chinese American author, who debuted her book "Kitty Learns A New Lesson" with Duck Duck Books. She loves listening to and telling stories through words, art, music, and dance. She is the first of her family to be born in the States and grew up in Missouri as a multilingual in Mandarin Chinese, Xia Tan Hua (her mother's dialect), Tian Jia Hua (her grandmother's dialect), and English. She currently lives in Kansas City with her cat, Merlin.

Illustrator

Ming-Yin Wong is an Asian American illustrator. He spent his formative years in Hong Kong, Hawaii, Japan, and the mainland US, drawing inspiration from his diverse cultural background. As a child, he discovered his love for art, and it has been a constant in his life ever since. When he is not creating his own art, Ming-Yin enjoys discovering new places and searching for authentic Hong Kong cuisine. Ming-Yin is fluent in Cantonese, and conversational Japanese. He currently resides in Seattle, WA with his wife and their beloved rescue dog.

Designer

Branden Leung grew up on Oahu, but fell in love with the PNW where he now raises his three children with his wife, Jenny. He grew up in a multicultural environment and spent much of his early career volunteering for nonprofits, while honing his graphic design skills. Now he uses his talents as a designer to create stories that families can enjoy together.
