PRICING IS TRANSPARENT

Individual order handling, roast to order coffee, print of your label design, bag of choice and U.S. shipping. You always know exactly what your costs will be. No hidden shipping costs and no non-refundable shipping deposit. No monthly fees. You only pay for the coffee you sell. The current price list is always available in the fulfillment app and in the published Drop ship and Direct Ship pricing.

Drop Ship Pricing

This is the cost for day to day orders coming into your Shopify store. It represents the cost of the production of your coffee plus U.S. shipping. International shipping is available at an additional cost.

Direct Ship (BULK) Price

This is the cost for your wholesale orders. It represents the cost to produce your product in quantities that meet the MOQ - (12 units per SKU for 12oz and 16oz sizes, 6 units per SKU for 2lb. and no MOQ on 5lb. bags. This allows you to aggressively compete against any local coffee roaster in your area. You can sell to cafes, restaurants, bars, retail and of course buy for your own brick and mortar store, events and farmer markets. Most of our successful brands use a combination of around 50% Drop ship and 50% Direct Ship in their coffee and tea business.

Production and Delivery

Buyers want fresh roasted coffee delivered reliably. To meet this demand, we have created an extremely efficient, reliable and fast production and delivery process. All coffee is roasted to order in 2-4 business days (2-3 most of the year and 4 or a bit longer during peak times and holidays). It is roasted, packed and shipped the same business day in almost all cases. Orders are shipped using the best method for that particular order. Cost and speed of service is considered for each order to ensure that the order arrives as expected. Most orders are delivered in 1-4 business days depending on order size and distance from the roastery. Please note that international shipping is available but it is expensive, slow and unreliable. It represents around 1.4% of all business and 18% of all shipping issues. International orders are in no way guaranteed and are not refundable in any way.
