Level up your game with comfort and massage

A game battle usually commands your full attention and requires you to be laser-focused on the fight in front of you. Rounds of intense gaming can cause your body to be tense for a prolonged period, resulting in body pains that affect your gaming performance. Maximize your resting time in between and after your game sessions with a massage that kneads away all of your body aches.

Level up your battle rank with comfort and massage.

Market research by Ipsos reports that 88% of gamers indicated that an ache-free and relaxed body would enhance gaming performance.

*Based on survey research conducted in April 2020 with 400 gamers

1. Gaming comfort like no other

Ergonomically designed, the uThrone is specially engineered with gamers in mind. Buffed with chair features to ensure the most comfortable posture, uThrone's personalized comfort gives you that extra energy boost you need for prolonged gaming.

Cool headrest and lumbar cushion

With soft-to-touch memory foam cushions, they provide sufficient support to the neck, shoulders and lumbar for maximum comfort.

Lean back & recline up to 145°
Wide-angle reclining function lets you recline to the best comfort angle as you take a quick nap to recharge, and knock out any fatigue.

Adjustable height

The rigorously-tested robust hydraulics gas pistons (EN16955) are certified to ensure consistency and stability every time you sit.

Immersive Bluetooth speakers

Equipped with 2 premium sound speakers so you can listen to the sounds of victory when you are gaming or resting.

Adjustable gaming armrests

Rest your hands on soft PVC armrests that are adjustable up to 6cm, allowing your hand to rest comfortably on the armrest that is aligned with the table height, so you're attack-ready every time.

Concealed sliding controls

Stealthily concealed on your right armrest, simply slide out the handle to choose your massage programs and control your massage preference with ease.

Silent PU castors

The 5-legged nylon legs are equipped with silent castors to let you easily roll the chair around.

2. Massage is the key to victory

Redefining gaming chairs, the uThrone's massage function allows gamers to relieve neck, shoulders and lumbar pain while re-energizing the whole body, so you can easily secure the champion's throne.
