Prepare to hog the spotlight with offers of assistance in both your career development and wealth! You may find your benefactors among those of the opposite gender but beware of the pitfalls of mixing money with relationships. In matters of love, it's time to sow some extra care into your relationships. Singles should wait patiently for the right person to come into their life. This year, stress levels seem to be at an all-time high. Whether you seek inner peace through the tranquil practice of yoga or prefer letting off some steam by screaming your stress away.

Career: 4 Stars

An unbeatable career forecast awaits you in 2024, your career pen appears to be lush. Profit from an expanding network of influential people who will gladly assist you in identifying opportunities. You will find support from Ox, Dragon, and Snake noblemen. Look forward to smooth sailing endeavours, promotion or even salary raise. This year don't be sceptical; embrace bold innovation and change – it could be your ticket to future success.

Wealth: 4.5 Stars

The year presents a tough climb up the proverbial mountain of wealth, so handle your finances with care and plan your investments thoroughly. The 3rd, 4th, and 7th lunar months are suitable for safer investments. Avoid being overambitious as your decisions may result in losses and even a possible lawsuit. Black Rutilated Quartz crystal is your lucky charm; consider upgrading your skillsets and improving your financial literacy in 2024.

Relationships: 2.5 Stars

2024 is the year of plentiful opportunities for love, although not everyone will be worthy of your time. Instead of passively waiting for your soulmate, focus on improving yourself. Those who are dating should be prepared to invest extra time and energy on your relationships. For a start, why not create unforgettable memories with your partner by snapping some cherished photos together.

Health: 1.5 Stars

Pigging out too often due to social obligations may result in health problems. This year, even the fittest boar should be wary of health issues such as burdens on your liver and digestive system. Those with high blood pressure, high cholesterol, and high blood sugar levels should pay more attention to your diet. Make maintaining a healthy lifestyle your priority and seek medical attention for your pains in a timely fashion.
