Touched by the light of two auspicious stars, your 2024 journey will see your career and wealth prospects on the rise! However, don't put all your eggs in one basket when investing and keep an eye out for scams. Couples looking to rev up their relationship might like to take some time off work and get into the driver's seat for some romantic outing. As you race towards a podium finish in 2024, remember to keep yourself in top form by maintain a healthy diet and a regular exercise routine.

Career: 4 Stars

This year, your career will take flight as the auspicious Zi Wei leadership star puts you in the limelight. Spread your wings and expand your connections at work with the help of your superiors and other people of influence. Strike while the iron is hot and promotions will come naturally. Entrepreneurs will want to ride the tide of change and adopt cutting-edge tools like artificial intelligence to grow your business

Wealth: 3.5 Stars

Roosters have plenty to crow about when it comes to wealth this year! 2024 will provide you with plenty of golden eggs to choose from, and a successful career will bring steady income. When managing investments, don't let short-term successes make you lose your cool. Instead, be mindful to keep risks at bay. If you might indulge in a little gambling for entertainment, consider lucky numbers that are personal to you, such as your birthday or registration number. However, avoid pinning your hopes too high on your lottery bets!

Relationships: 0.5 Stars

Romance is fleeting for the Roosters this year. If you're single, resist the urge to invest all your emotions into a single person. Instead, focus on shining on your own; the right one will come to you. Married Roosters may notice their spouses' health and fortune deteriorating, causing some challenges in the household. Placing a family portrait in the southwest corner of your residence could strengthen your relationship. Don't forget to plan some romantic surprises or even change up your bedroom decorations to keep your love life exciting.

Health: 3.5 Stars

Remember to keep your health in check even as your career takes off. In the midst of work and social activities, it is easy to overlook potential health issues such as digestive issues or kidney stones. Consistent exercise can invigorate you, while music may be your haven. Make mental health and overall well-being a priority in 2024.
