Get in Touch With History - On the Excalibur's second floor you'll find an interactive historical exhibit on the history of the city of Las Vegas. This interactive museum showcases exhibits from the likes of the Silver Mine of Silverton, the original Gold Rush, and the infamous "Strip Poker Run" by Jesse James. You'll also find an exhibit featuring the works of Clark Gable, Marilyn Monroe and many more. The Excalibur Hotel and Casino is also home to an interactive restaurant called "The Kitchen," which is open to visitors every day from noon until midnight.

Get Ready For Something Spectacular - In between the exhibits on the second floor of the Excalibur Hotel & Casino is a unique show that only Vegas can offer. The Vegas Golden Knights takes the ice for their historic, four-game series against the San Jose Sharks in the National Hockey League. The show features live music by the hottest bands in town, with special appearances by some of the hottest stars from Hollywood. The best part about visiting this show is that the whole show happens on the hotel's second floor, so you'll be able to enjoy it while you're enjoying your stay at the Excalibur Hotel & Casino. If you're looking for something a little different, try the hottest shows in Las Vegas, or go on a tour with the Golden Knights. Whatever you choose to do while you're at the Excalibur, you will certainly leave happy. So make the most of your stay at this Las Vegas hotel, because you'll never forget your experience!
