FRIENDS TO KEEP IN ART AND LIFE

By Nicole Tersigni

From the author of the bestselling masterpiece Men to Avoid in Art and Life comes Friends to Keep in Art and Life, a hilarious and relatable celebration of female friendships and all their bizarre-but-special moments. Pairing classical paintings with sassy captions, Tersigni honors all sorts of sacred female friendships and the miscellaneous nonsense that brings women closer together. Focusing on five major friend types (the Work Friend, the Nurturing Friend, the Hide a Body for You Friend, the Up for Anything Friend, and the Super Honest Friend), Tersigni's meme-style humor perfectly captures all of the weird, intimate, cherished, and often laugh-out-loud moments that define female friendship.

NICOLE TERSIGNI is a comedic writer experienced in improv comedy and women's advocacy. She lives in metro Detroit with her husband, daughter, and two dogs.

HOMAGE

Recipes and Stories from an Amish Soul Food Kitchen • By Chris Scott with Sarah Zorn
Photographs by Brittany Conerly

Homage is a first-of-its-kind cookbook that celebrates a vastly under-explored foodway in the African diaspora: Amish soul food. Via comforting recipes and compelling narrative, renowned chef Chris Scott tells the remarkable story of his family over seven generations—from his enslaved ancestors to his great-grandfather, who migrated to Pennsylvania after the Emancipation Proclamation, to his own childhood in Amish country and, ultimately, his successful restaurant career in Philadelphia and New York City. Here Chris shares 100 dishes born of a unique blend of Southern, German, and Dutch cuisines. With stunning photography that evokes the rich history of these distinct cultures, Homage is a must-have cookbook with vivid storytelling, a strong sense of place, and a new point of view.

CHRIS SCOTT is a chef and restaurateur, and was a finalist on season 15 of Top Chef. He lives in New York City.
SARAH ZORN is a food writer and editor based in New York.
BRITTANY CONERLY is a Dallas-based food, lifestyle, and travel photographer.

PERSUASION

The Complete Novel, Featuring the Characters' Letters and Papers, Written and Folded by Hand
By Jane Austen • Curated by Barbara Heller

Captain Wentworth's letter to Anne Elliot remains one of literature's most unforgettable confessions. It is the jewel at the heart of Persuasion, Jane Austen's captivating story of second chances and enduring love. Throughout the story, letters and other paper ephemera reveal the characters' motivations and shape their destinies. The Navy List that helps Anne chart Wentworth's life from afar; the concert bill from a pivotal evening in Bath; a page from the Baronetage, Sir Walter Elliot's favorite book—all these and more are brought to life in this deluxe edition. As you read the novel, you will find pockets throughout containing replicas of fifteen items from the story, recreated with exquisite calligraphy and painstaking attention to historical detail. For anyone who loves Jane Austen or still cherishes the joy of letter writing, this book deepens the experience of a favorite story in an entirely new way.

PRAISE FOR HELLER'S PRIDE AND PREJUDICE:

"And finally, for the letter lover with a touch of class, you must get the forthcoming edition of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice curated by Barbara Heller. . . . More than a gimmick, it's a dramatic way to experience the central role that correspondence plays in the novel."

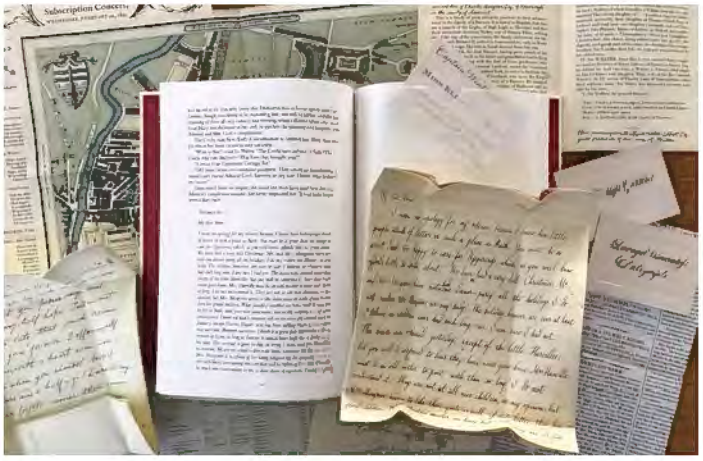
—The Washington Post

"Even beyond the minute care taken in the handwriting, the letters in Heller's edition of Pride and Prejudice are painstakingly detailed, from the style of folding . . . to the postal markings and wax imprints indicating price, mileage, date, etc. . . . These letters, with the various character traits that their appearances indicate, can bring 21st-century readers closer to Austen's world."

—Smithsonian magazine

"The concept has been so well executed that the inclusion of the 'real' letters brings a completely unexpected quality to the novel—an element of surprise and delight that emphasizes the importance of letter-writing in the 18th century and cleverly echoes Jane Austen's own mastery of the art of correspondence."

—Regency magazine



JANE AUSTEN (author) (1775–1817) was a British writer. Persuasion was her last completed novel, published six months after her death.
BARBARA HELLER (curator) is a set decorator for film and television and a writer and director of award-winning short films. Her previous books include special editions of Pride and Prejudice and Little Women. She lives in New York City.

MASA

Techniques, Recipes, and Reflections on a Timeless Staple • By Jorge Gaviria
Photographs by Graydon Herriott

Like sourdough before it, craft masa is on the brink of a global culinary movement—and here is the definitive authority. Masa is a guide to making authentic, high-quality masa from scratch and will teach you how to create flavorful recipes with this beloved Mesoamerican staple in your home kitchen. Learn how to use masa in 50 traditional applications, such as tortillas, pozole, and arepas, as well as 10 modern applications, like Lamb Birria with Masa Gnocchi, Masa Harina Waffles, and Shrimp and Masa Grits. This cookbook will inspire cooks of all skill levels to think creatively and adapt recipes confidently for their own use. Brimming with history, replicable techniques, and reflections from masa authorities, including third-generation tortillerxs and acclaimed chefs, Masa reveals the beauty and longstanding traditions behind this elemental staple.

JORGE GAVIRIA is the founder of Masienda, a resource and supplier of high quality masa and masa products. He has been recognized by top international press outlets for his work and was a Forbes "30 Under 30" honoree for food and wine in 2017. He lives in Los Angeles.

MAKEOVER FROM WITHIN

Lessons in Hardship, Acceptance, and Self-Discovery
By Ty Hunter with Eila Mell • Foreword by Beyoncé
Afterword by Billy Porter

In this nuanced mix of memoir, photographs, motivational musings, and wisdom, legendary celebrity stylist Ty Hunter recounts both the trying times and brightest moments of his life. Faced with physical, mental, and emotional obstacles, from suffering a gunshot wound and caring for his sick parents to simply existing as a gay Black man in America, Ty shares how he channeled his energy into surmounting the unconquerable and thus developed a resilient spirit—one that begs to be shared with the world. Through overcoming hardship and building a career as a stylist working with superstars like Beyoncé and Billy Porter, Ty has developed a knack for inspiring self-confidence in others. At once a compelling story of a vibrant soul who defeated the odds and a guide to a brighter and more positive future, this book is perfect for anyone needing a dose of inspiration.

TY HUNTER is a major force in the fashion industry. A stylist who has worked with celebrities like Beyoncé, Solange, and Billy Porter, he has also designed his own collections and collaborated with major designers and brands.

RAISING THE BAR

A Bottle-by-Bottle Guide to Mixing Masterful Cocktails at Home • By Brett Adams and Jacob Grier
Illustrated by Woody Harrington

There's a basic cocktail formula for building a drink that is anything but ordinary:

Spirit + Sugar + Acidity/Bitterness = Tasty Cocktail

Rather than relying on esoteric bottles of liquor, complicated syrups, and obscure sodas, Raising the Bar takes readers through the home bar bottle by bottle, ensuring that every ingredient is versatile enough to be used to the last drop. Each chapter thoughtfully introduces a new bottle and explains how it opens new possibilities for cocktails, building on the one before, so readers never encounter recipes calling for unfamiliar spirits or ingredients. With handsome graphics and a smart focus on what's already in stock, it's what home mixologists can turn to when they want creative and delightful drinks without a bar cart full of single-use bottles.

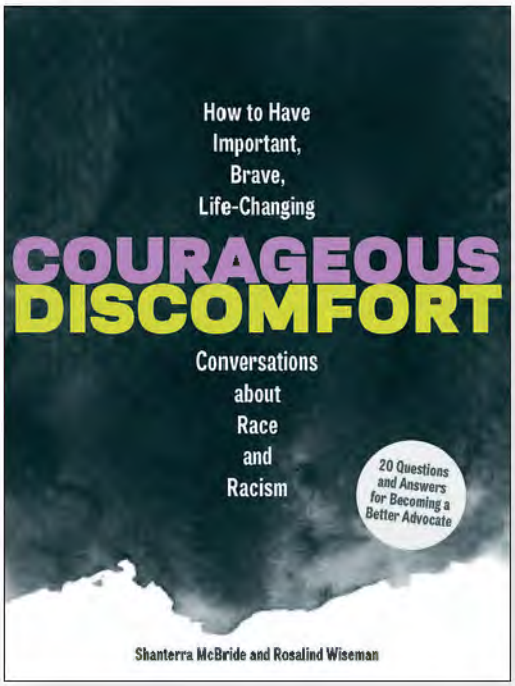
20 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FOR BECOMING A BETTER ADVOCATE



COURAGEOUS DISCOMFORT

How to Have Important, Brave, Life-Changing Conversations about Race and Racism

By Shanterra McBride and Rosalind Wiseman

Many people struggle to have honest conversations about race, even those who identify as anti-racist allies. For anyone who wants to have more productive discussions, Courageous Discomfort is an empowering handbook that teaches you how to do just that. In these pages, authors (and best friends) Shanterra McBride, who is Black, and Rosalind Wiseman, who is white, discuss their friendship and tap into their decades of anti-racism work to answer the 20 questions about race they get asked most often. Each chapter invites you into the conversation without judgment and inspires thoughtful reflection and discussion. While there is no perfect solution or script for every maybe racist, sort-of racist, or blatantly racist situation, learning how to have uncomfortable but necessary conversations helps us all build the relationships we desire, including the ones with ourselves.

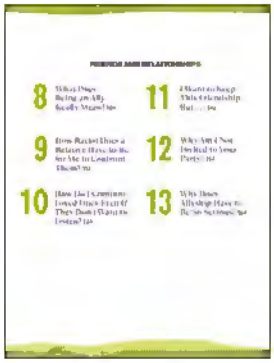
ANSWERS TO 20 UNCOMFORTABLE BUT CRITICAL QUESTIONS, SUCH AS:

Should I see color?

I'm a good person—how can I be racist?

What if I say something wrong?

What kind of apology makes a difference?



SHANTERRA MCBRIDE is a Texas-based author, preacher, speaker, and teacher. She is the founder of Marvelous University, a social enterprise that offers life coaching, success planning, and leadership development for girls and young women.

ROSALIND WISEMAN is a Colorado-based speaker and bestselling author, most notably of Queen Bees and Wannabes, the basis for the hit movie and Broadway musical Mean Girls. She is a regular contributor to National Public Radio, the New York Times, The Today Show, and other national media.

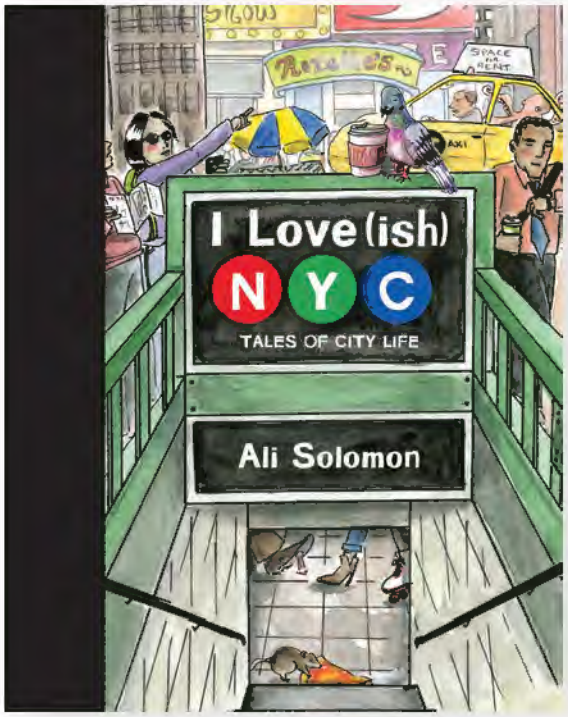
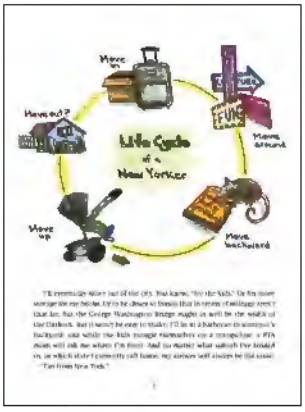
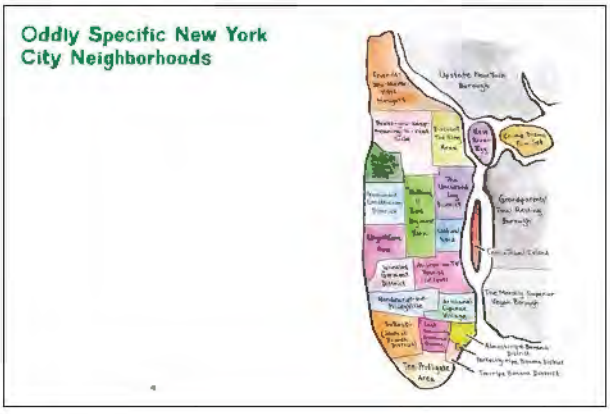
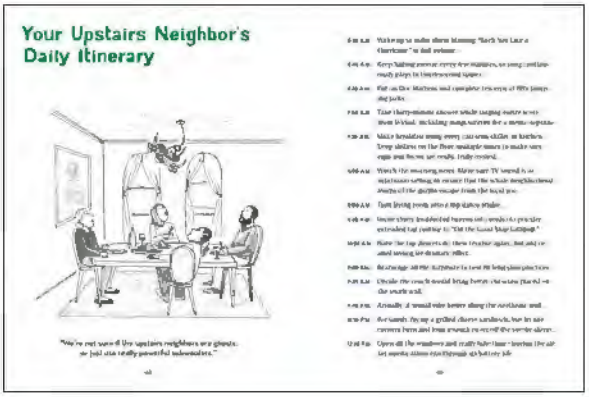
AN ILLUSTRATED LOVE LETTER TO NYC!









I LOVE(ISH) NEW YORK CITY

Tales of City Life • By Ali Solomon

There is no city quite like New York City, for better or worse. I Love(ish) New York City is a hilariously relatable collection of humor essays, illustrations, and cartoons about the always interesting, sometimes frustrating, and endlessly entertaining quirks of living in the Big Apple. Despite the notorious six-floor walk ups and unrequited love found in all the wrong dive bars, the city's unique charm and irresistible allure keeps millions of residents walking fast and talking faster in this urban paradise. New Yorker and McSweeney's contributor Ali Solomon brings an absurdist's eye and a satirist's pen to this love letter to the greatest (or great-ish?) city in the world. I Love(ish) New York City is for anyone who has ever loved, left, or dreamed of living in New York City.

ALI SOLOMON is a writer, cartoonist, and art teacher. She is a regular contributor to the New Yorker and McSweeney's Internet Tendency. She lives in Queens, New York, with her family.

IS IT HOT IN HERE?

Or Am I Suffering for All Eternity for The Sins I Committed on Earth?

By Zach Zimmerman

From comedian Zach Zimmerman comes this laugh-and-cry-out-loud debut collection of essays, lists, musings, and quips archiving a pursuit of self-discovery. Through this memoir-esque exploration of selfhood, Zach unveils the pros and cons of retiring a Bible-Belt-dwelling, meat-eating, God-fearing identity in exchange for a new, metropolitan lease on life—one of vegetarianism, atheism, queerness, and humor. Through the Hells of religious guilt, dead-end jobs, and hookups gone horribly wrong, this book is a candid and hysterical snippet of one person's journey toward making peace with the past and seeking hope in the future, perfect for the bookworm and humor fan in your life.

ZACH ZIMMERMAN is a Brooklyn-based comedian and writer named a TimeOut New York Comic to Watch whose work has been published in the New Yorker, McSweeney's, the Washington Post, the Independent, and more.

I CAN'T WAIT TO CALL YOU MY WIFE

African American Letters of Love and Family in the Civil War Era • By Rita Roberts

Thousands of African Americans spent the Civil War trying to hold their families together. This moving book illuminates that struggle through the letters they exchanged. Despite harsh laws against literacy and brutal practices that broke apart Black families, people found ways to write to each other against all odds. Readers will meet parents who are losing hope of ever seeing their children again, and a husband who walks fifteen miles to visit his wife, enslaved on a different plantation. The collection includes courtship letters exchanged between the children of noted abolitionists, and letters sent home by the young women who traveled south to teach literacy to escaped slaves. Roberts' expert curation allows readers to see the wider historical context. The transcriptions are accompanied by reproductions of selected original letters and photographs of the letter writers.

RITA ROBERTS is a writer and historian. She is currently transitioning to retirement from her professorship of History and Africana Studies at Scripps College, where she holds the Nathan Wright Stephenson Chair in History and Biography.

LIVING WHILE BLACK

Portraits of Everyday Resistance
By Ajuan Mance • Foreword by Alicia Garza

Laughing. Grieving. Being a kid. Public expressions of pleasure and sorrow, and even the daily joys and activities of childhood, are acts of resistance if you are Black in the 21st century. This immersive hardcover book features 40 defiantly joyful illustrations—each one depicting a person of African descent going about their daily business—by artist and educator Ajuan Mance. Begun as Mance's personal response to the Black Lives Matter protests in 2020, Living While Black denounces the excessive surveillance and violence aimed at Black folks engaged in the activities of everyday life—and celebrates the courage and resilience of the Black community. Featuring a foreword from activist Alicia Garza, this thought-provoking project makes a wonderful tool for teachers, students, activists, and parents navigating conversations about racism and resistance.

AJUAN MANCE is a professor of African American literature at Mills College in Oakland, California. Mance uses humor and bright colors to explore the complexities of race, gender, and identity in the 21st century. ALICIA GARZA, an activist, author, and political strategist, is one of the co-creators of the Black Lives Matter movement and the founder and principal of Black Futures Lab.

THE HERBIVOROUS BUTCHER COOKBOOK

75+ Recipes for Plant-Based Meats and All the Dishes You Can Make with Them

By Aubry and Kale Walch with Danny Seo and Sandra Soria • Photographs by Rikki Snyder

Think of any go-to American meat-focused cookbook. Now, imagine it vegan. From the Guamanian brother-sister duo behind acclaimed and beloved vegan butcher shop the Herbivorous Butcher, here are 75 innovative recipes for plant-based meats and standout vegan dishes. These include butcher shop classics (but so much healthier) like Pork Chops, Ground Beef, and Chicken Cutlets that taste and chew as good as the real thing. Perfect for vegans as well as anyone who wants to eat well and consume less meat, these base recipes (or store-bought substitutes) can be used to prepare super-tasty, meat-centric dishes that are—yep—totally vegan: Cherry-Glazed Rib Rack, Nashville Hot Popcorn Chicken, Kale's Very Fine Lasagna, and more. With a chapter on sauces, bases, and "butters" that will elevate any vegan dish, plus beautiful photography and entertaining stories, this book is a glimpse of the future—and the future tastes delicious.

Sister and brother duo AUBRY WALCH and KALE WALCH run the Herbivorous Butcher Shop out of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

RICE IS LIFE

Recipes and Stories Celebrating the World's Most Essential Grain • By Caryl Levine and Ken Lee of Lotus Foods, with Kristin Donnelly
Recipe photographs by Erin Scott

Rice is so much more than just a pantry staple. It is the foundation of cuisines across the world, a grain that sustains half the world's people, and the start of a delicious meal at home. From the founders of Lotus Foods, this love letter to rice and rice noodles showcases the grain with over 65 recipes for easy-to-cook dishes, from fresh salads and soups to hearty main dishes and even sweet desserts. Along the way, it also offers essays on rice culture and sustainable rice agriculture, showing how rice plays a part in uplifting people across the globe. With its bright and colorful interior, Rice Is Life finds the joy and freshness in the everyday beauty of rice not just as a pantry staple, but a staple of life.

RECIPES INCLUDE:

Arroz con Pollo

JUST ENOUGH DESIGN

Reflections on the Japanese Philosophy of Hodo-hodo
By Taku Satoh • Edited and translated by Linda Hoaglund

The Japanese phrase hodo-hodo originates in ancient times. When contemporary designer Taku Satoh applies it to his work, it means "just enough." Hodo-hodo design deliberately holds back, leaving room for individuals to engage with objects according to their unique sensibilities. In the midst of a consumerist age, Satoh has built an illustrious design career around this philosophy, creating iconic work in fashion, food, and architecture. His ideas speak not just to professional designers, but to anyone who wishes to move more thoughtfully through the world. Within this slim but powerful volume, Satoh explains his philosophy through tangible examples—from the aesthetic of a timeworn ramen shop to a rooftop playground inspired by onomatopaeia. Urging readers to appreciate everyday objects and spaces and to question the lure of convenience, he delivers a message rooted in the past yet perfectly suited to our times.

"Try envisioning design as water. Water is indispensable to human life, connecting us to our environments in visible and invisible ways. It can cause disasters like tsunamis . . . but it can also materialize as a rainbow, radiant in the light of the sun. Just as water makes every phenomenon possible, design is an essential component of every human endeavor."

THE ART OF FEMINISM, REVISED EDITION

Images that Shaped the Fight for Equality, 1857–2022
By Helena Reckitt

Featuring an additional 60 pages of material, this revised edition covers an expanded range of artworks, artists, movements, and perspectives. From suffragettes and World War II–era workers through 20th-century icons to contemporary cutting-edge figures, this comprehensive survey traces the ways in which feminists have employed visual arts in transmitting their messages. With more than 450 images of art, illustration, photography, graphic design, and public protest, this stunning volume showcases the vibrancy of the feminist aesthetic over two centuries. Revised and expanded material includes women artists of the Bauhaus, grassroots and experimental curatorial efforts, a broader range of performance artists, and artworks created since the publication of the original edition.

SELF-CARE IN UNDERWEAR

Yoga in Your Undies, Bubble Baths, and 50+ More Ways to Improve Well-Being • By Ton Mak

From Ton Mak, author of the bestselling A Sloth's Guide to Mindfulness, here is a cheerful collection of 50 easy self-care practices as demonstrated by one of her most popular Flabjack characters, No-Pants Pansy. Via dip-in dip-out vignettes, Pansy—who loves spending time at home and can usually be found in her undies—presents all the happiness-inducing activities and self-care practices you can only do in your personal space, from playing with fluffy friends or procrastibaking to foam rolling, jade rolling, or just . . . rolling. Millennial and Gen-Z shoppers will love the adorable Pansy and relatable content, while fans of comics in the style of Gemma Correll and Nathan W. Pyle will be drawn in by the colorful, quirky art. In a bright package with a padded case, Self-Care in Underwear makes a cute gift alongside a pair of whimsical undies, a scented bath bomb, or a luxe face mask.

TON MAK is a visual artist, author, and illustrator. She splits her time between San Francisco and Shanghai.

JIMI

By Janie Hendrix and John McDermott

JIMI is the ultimate tribute to the greatest guitar player in rock and roll history, celebrating what would have been Jimi Hendrix's 80th birthday on November 27, 2022. This comprehensive visual celebration is an official collaboration with Jimi's sister, Janie Hendrix, and John McDermott of Experience Hendrix L.L.C. JIMI significantly expands on the authors' previously published titles, including An Illustrated Experience, and features a new introduction by Janie, extensive biographical texts, and a trove of lesser known and never-before-published photographs, personal memorabilia, lyrics, and more. Additionally, JIMI includes quotations by legendary musicians, such as Paul McCartney, Ron Wood, Dave Grohl, and many more. Hendrix created revered classics such as "Purple Haze," and "Voodoo Child." His signature guitar playing, provocative songwriting, and charismatic performances have continued to inspire.

JANIE HENDRIX is the president and CEO of Seattle-based Experience Hendrix L.L.C. and Authentic Hendrix L.L.C.

JOHN MCDERMOTT is the director, writer, and producer who has long been associated with the legacy of Jimi Hendrix. He has served as the catalog director for Experience Hendrix L.L.C. for nearly three decades.

BOB WILLOUGHBY: A CINEMATIC LIFE

By Bob Willoughby
Introduction by Christopher Willoughby

This large-format monograph on renowned photographer Bob Willoughby's extraordinary cinematic life is a tribute to his remarkable career. This definitive tome includes over 200 black-and-white and color images of celebrity legends such as Audrey Hepburn, Marilyn Monroe, Jean Seberg, Elizabeth Taylor, Elvis Presley, Natalie Wood, Frank Sinatra, Cary Grant, James Dean, and many more. Additionally, many first-person, insider anecdotes by Bob Willoughby himself accompany his signature images on the sets of beloved classics such as Rebel Without a Cause, My Fair Lady, Rosemary's Baby, and The Graduate, to name just a few.

BOB WILLOUGHBY (1927–2009) began his prolific career in 1954 when he photographed Judy Garland on the set of A Star Is Born, which became his first cover for LIFE magazine. Although born in Los Angeles, Willoughby and his wife moved to Ireland, where they raised their children in a fifteenth-century castle.

GET YOUR SH*T TOGETHER

By David Shrigley

*Get Your Sh*t Together is* the first book that exclusively features recent artwork in color by beloved British artist David Shrigley. The volume celebrates Shrigley's absurd, deadpan sensibility through both his signature drawing style and accompanying text. Organized by chapters with titles such as "Stupid," "Nonsense," "Dirt," "Fear," "Paranoia," "Love," and "Self Delusion," this collection is sure to delight die-hard Shrigley fans and new ones alike. This is the largest-format book to date on Shrigley's prolific work and features design details such as a ribbon marker printed with one of his mordant sayings as well as hand-written, humorous essays throughout.

DAVID SHRIGLEY is a celebrated British artist. His distinctive drawing style combines handwritten humorous text with childlike imagery of animals, people, and everyday still lives. In addition to his drawing practice, Shrigley also creates large-scale installations and sculptures derived from these works as well as books, videos, photography, and other media. His work is featured in museum collections around the world.

THE DEFINITIVE LIST OF THE 100 GREATEST SOCCER PLAYERS—THEIR TRIUMPHS, SKILL, AND TENACITY—FROM THE TEAM BEHIND THE POPULAR NBC SPORTS SHOW MEN IN BLAZERS.

MEN IN BLAZERS PRESENT GODS OF SOCCER

The Pantheon of the 100 Greatest Soccer Players • According to Us

By Roger Bennett, Michael Davies, and Miranda Davis • Illustrated by Nate Kitch

With the same signature humor as their New York Times best-seller Encyclopedia Blazertannica, the team behind the popular NBC Sports show Men in Blazers and one of the biggest soccer podcasts in the world profiles 100 of the greatest male and female soccer players of all time. Discover tales of dreams, loyalty, perseverance, superhuman tenacity, and telenovela-esque back-stories. Accompanied by Nate Kitch's iconic photographic illustrations, Gods of Soccer shares household names like Beckham and Marta, along with cult icons such as Garrincha, the Brazilian star of the 1960s born with one leg six inches shorter than the other, and Briana Scurry, a trailblazer who paved a path for young Black soccer-playing women. The perfect combination of sports narrative, stats, and commentary, Gods of Soccer offers a funny, profound, and comprehensive history of soccer.

ROGER BENNETT is the New York Times bestselling author of (Re)born in the USA as well as a broadcaster, filmmaker, and cohost of NBC's Men in Blazers. He lives in Bedford, New York.

MICHAEL DAVIES is a multiple Emmy Award–winning producer and cohost of NBC's Men in Blazers. He lives in Bridgehampton, New York.

LOVE YOUR HOME AGAIN

Organize Your Space and Uncover the Home of Your Dreams • By Ann Lightfoot and Kate Pawlowski

When we first move in to a new home, we have grand visions for our space. But time passes and drawers, closets, and cabinets fill until there's no space to put things away. A few years later, we look around and find the home we dreamt of is nowhere to be seen. In Love Your Home Again, mother-daughter duo Ann Lightfoot and Kate Pawlowski teach us how to manage our homes in a modern, kind, and effective way. Through their signature systems of decluttering, organizing, and maintaining, Ann and Kate guide readers through the steps to resolve the issues behind the excess stuff and create the literal space to consider what they want from their home.

ANN LIGHTFOOT and KATE PAWLOWSKI are the dynamic mother-daughter duo behind Done & Done Home, a professional organizing service with clients in New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Los Angeles, Chicago, and more.

DISCOVER FOUR FOUNDATIONS OF HAWAIIAN LIVING FOR A PEACEFUL AND BALANCED LIFE.

ISLAND WISDOM

Hawaiian Traditions and Practices for a Meaningful Life • By Kainoa Daines and Annie Daly

More than just a beautiful paradise, Hawai'i has a rich culture, deeply rooted in tradition. Native Hawaiian and cultural expert Kainoa Daines teams up with journalist Annie Daly to share a beautiful book exploring four foundations of Hawaiian living: ALOHA (love), ʻĀINA (land), MOʻOLELO (stories), and ʻOHANA (family). Filled with the voices and guidance of Hawaiian elders, regional folklore, and ancient teachings that have stood the test of time, Island Wisdom will help you discover how to be pono (live a balanced life), how to mālama ʻāina (preserve and protect the land), and so much more. Including gorgeous local photography and illustrations, this heartfelt collaboration is a celebration of Hawai'i's language, culture, and values for living a more joyful life.

KAINOA DAINES is the senior director of brand for the Hawai'i Visitors & Convention Bureau and a member of the Royal Order of Kamehameha I. He is a resident of Honolulu with roots on all the major Hawaiian Islands.

ANNIE DALY is the author of Destination Wellness and a freelance journalist who specializes in travel and wellness. She lives in New York City.

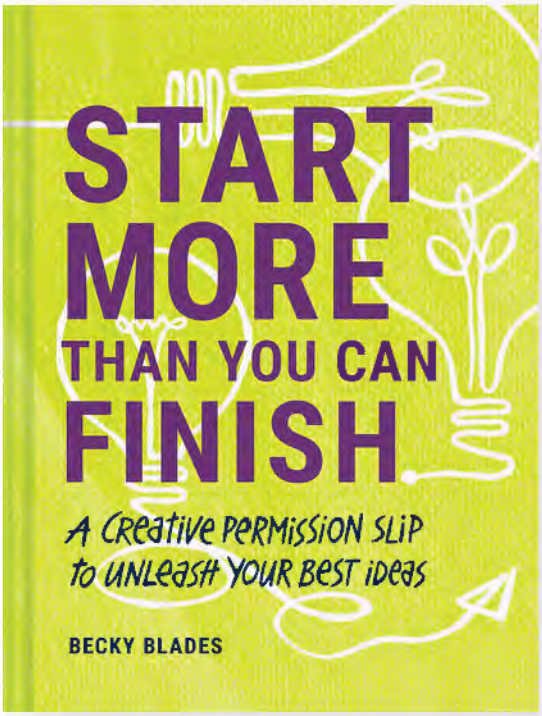
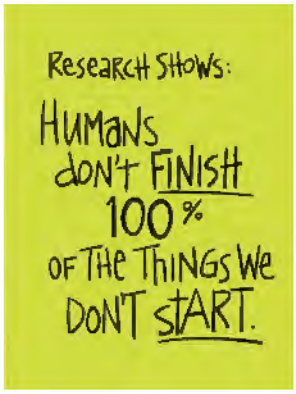
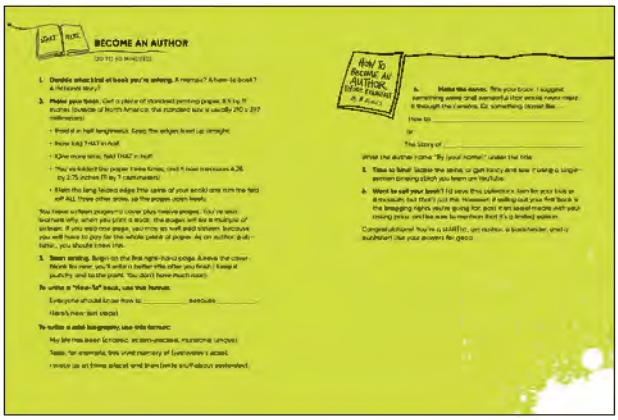
IGNITE MORE OF YOUR CREATIVE IDEAS WITH THIS NEW STARTISTIC MINDSET!







START MORE THAN YOU CAN FINISH

A Creative Permission Slip to Unleash Your Best Ideas
By Becky Blades

In Start More Than You Can Finish, Becky Blades empowers readers to become "stARTists," or initiators with a bias for action and the courage to ignite ideas. Blades introduces the concept of "stARTistry," spotlighting the four-step changemaking process we all use to subconsciously start anything. Using digestible data, humorous and honest personal experience, interviews with artists and entrepreneurs, and assignments to help you get started, Start More Than You Can Finish challenges the tropes our dads, moms, and third-grade teachers told us about finishing. In today's world, we must, in fact, start more. Certainly more than we can finish.

BECKY BLADES is an entrepreneur, writer, artist, and creative strategist. She wrote and illustrated Do Your Laundry or You'll Die Alone: Advice Your Mom Would Give if She Thought You Were Listening, named one of the Best Books of 2014 and Top 100 Indie Releases by Kirkus Reviews.

MOVING THROUGH CANCER

An Exercise and Strength-Training Program for the Fight of Your Life
Empowers Patients and Caregivers in 5 Steps
By Dr. Kathryn Schmitz, PhD, MPH, FACSM

Cancer diagnosis and treatment doesn't have to be a passive experience, and it shouldn't be. Exercise oncology researcher Dr. Kathryn Schmitz's Moving Through Cancer uses exercise for cancer treatment and recovery in the same way it has been used for heart disease—only better. In just 21 days, patients and caregivers will see improvements in their physical and emotional health and overall quality of life. This groundbreaking book is at the center of her campaign to have doctors prescribing exercise to cancer patients as common practice by 2029.

KATHRYN SCHMITZ, PHD, MPH, FACSM, is the director of the Oncology, Nutrition, and Exercise group at the Penn State Cancer Institute and former president at the American College of Sports Medicine. Her work has been covered by media outlets including Good Morning America, the New York Times, NPR, and the Wall Street Journal.

HEALING THROUGH YOGA

Transform Loss into Empowerment
By Paul Denniston • Foreword by David Kessler

So often, we think that grief lives only in our hearts and minds. But what about the emotions that weigh us down and the grief that gets stuck in our body? Our emotions need motion, and Healing Through Yoga is a unique, simple, and powerful way of healing. Grief Yoga founder Paul Denniston takes you through five stages of Awareness, Expression, Connection, Surrender, and Evolution with clear and compassionate instruction for poses and exercises—including easy-to-follow photos—and meditations specifically designed to move you through each particular step. Healing Through Yoga will help you process your grief and use it as fuel for transformative healing.

PAUL DENNISTON is the founder of Grief Yoga, which blends many forms of yoga, movement, and sound. Paul teaches bereavement groups, cancer support centers, and addiction groups.

DETOX YOUR THOUGHTS

Quit Negative Self-Talk for Good and Discover the Life You've Always Wanted • By Andrea Bonior, PhD

If breaking free of negative thought patterns could be cured by simply thinking positively or doubling down on our self-care, we wouldn't see such epidemic rates of depression and anxiety disorders worldwide. In Detox Your Thoughts, popular psychologist Andrea Bonior, PhD, deciphers the psychological research to help us disempower our self-sabotaging thoughts and teaches actionable ways to conquer them.

DR. ANDREA BONIOR is the psychologist behind the popular "Baggage Check" advice column and live chat for the Washington Post. Her "Detox Your Thoughts" challenge for BuzzFeed went viral, and her PsychologyToday.com blog has garnered more than 15 million views. She lives in the Washington, DC, area.

HOW TO LIVE LIKE THE LITTLE PRINCE

A Grown-Up's Guide to Rediscovering Imagination, Adventure, and Awe • By Stéphane Garnier

Few books have been as universally cherished as Antione de Saint-Exupéry's The Little Prince. One of the bestselling books of all time, the haunting, lyrical fable explores the meaning of life through a young boy who travels the universe in search of happiness. Featuring original illustrations and beloved quotes by Saint-Exupéry, this international sensation teaches us how to navigate the increasingly complex demands of adult life and rediscover what matters most—at any age.

SCIENCE PREMIERES ON THE BIG STAGE IN THIS OUTRAGEOUSLY FUNNY MUSICAL TALE BY AWARD-WINNING AUTHOR ADAM REX

DIGESTION!: THE MUSICAL

By Adam Rex • Illustrated by Laura Park

The Magic School Bus meets Hamilton in this hilarious, informative journey through the most basic process of the human body: digesting food! Follow along with intrepid sweet treat Candy while she meets each of the human body's organs as she approaches her big break: being successfully digested! Here is the scientific process of digestion as you've never seen it before—told through a musical, with Candy in the role of the small-town kid who wants to make it big, the baby carrots as the Greek chorus narrating all the action, and cameos from every body part that helps transform food from ingredients to nutrition. From beloved duo Adam Rex and Laura Park comes a genuinely educational, laugh-out-loud Broadway musical of a book about an epic adventure through the human body, from bite to butt.

FROM THE CREATOR OF NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK THERE MUST BE MORE THAN THAT! AND NEW YORK TIMES BEST ILLUSTRATED CHILDREN'S BOOK OF THE YEAR THE BORING BOOK

I CAN EXPLAIN

By Shinsuke Yoshitake

Nose picking? Nail biting? Wiping dirty hands on clothes? Instead of just deeming them "bad manners," award-winning author-illustrator Shinsuke Yoshitake encourages readers to consider the compelling reasons that may be behind these behaviors. For instance: Jumping on the bed is great practice for when the road becomes a trampoline! Not being able to sit still might actually be the chair's fault! And what better way to train for the International Straw Chewing Contest than by chewing on straws? This laugh-out-loud picture book unpacks the reasons behind a variety of relatable behaviors. Clever and creative, it will inspire children and parents alike to expand their powers of reason and view their own habits in a new, humorous, and—most importantly—forgiving light. After all, there's an explanation for everything!

SHINSUKE YOSHITAKE is the author-illustrator of many award-winning picture books, including New York Times Notable Book There Must Be More Than That! and New York Times Best Illustrated Children's Book The Boring Book. He lives in Japan.

NEW FROM THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF THE IVY + BEAN SERIES!

LIKE

By Annie Barrows • Illustrated by Leo Espinosa

By New York Times bestselling author Annie Barrows and Pura Belpré Honor award recipient Leo Espinosa, this funny yet thought-provoking picture book offers a sequence of outlandishly fun compare-and-contrasts that show how humans are much more like each other than we are different.

ANNIE BARROWS has written scads of books for children, including the New York Times bestselling chapter book series Ivy + Bean, as well as the Iggy series, a young adult novel, some picture books, and a couple of books involving magic. If Annie could be like something else on earth, she would probably choose an excavator. Or a tiger.

LEO ESPINOSA is a New York Times bestselling illustrator. He was awarded a prestigious Pura Belpré Honor for the picture book Island-born, written by Junot Díaz, and his illustrations have been featured in numerous publications, including the New Yorker. In addition to his love of drawing, Leo enjoys pedaling up and down the mountains around Salt Lake City, Utah, where he lives; so you could say he's both like a pencil and a bicycle.

THE PURRFECT HOLIDAY GIFT!

THE TWELVE CATS OF CHRISTMAS

By Feather Flores • Illustrated by Carrie Liao

On the fourth day of Christmas, my true love gave me cats:

FOUR on the gifts,

THREE dressed up,

TWO batting bows,

and a kitten under the tree.

It's a very merry Christmas—with cats! From chasing ribbons and shredding wrapping paper to cuddling by the fire and climbing the Christmas tree (uh-oh), the sweet kitties of this spirited take on the classic "Twelve Days of Christmas" carol encourage readers of all ages to celebrate the holiday season in festive feline fashion. With lively illustrations and text that invites readers to read (or sing!) aloud, this charming picture book is guaranteed to delight any cat lover. These cute cats will steal your heart—and your cookies for Santa!

FEATHER FLORES is a children's book writer and editor who believes that celebrating Christmas with a kitty is the best gift of all. She lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

CARRIE LIAO works as a storyboard artist by day and an illustrator by night, while her cat, Ellie, works at sleeping as many hours as possible. She resides in Southern California.

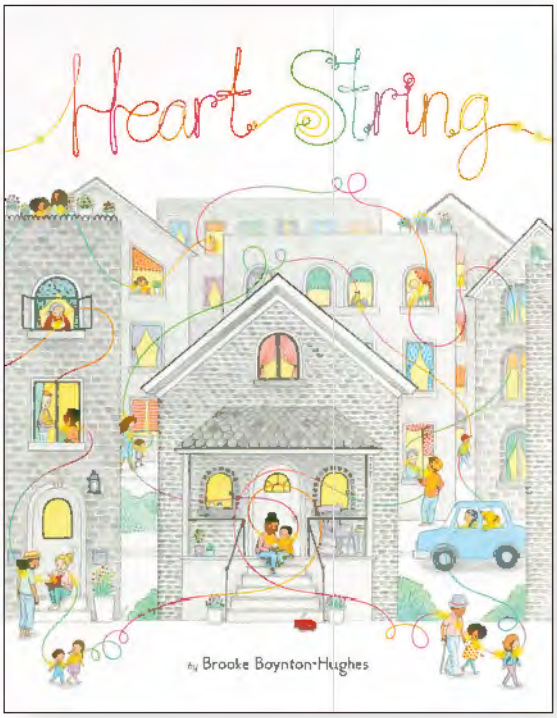
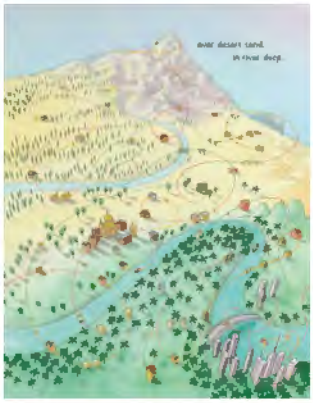
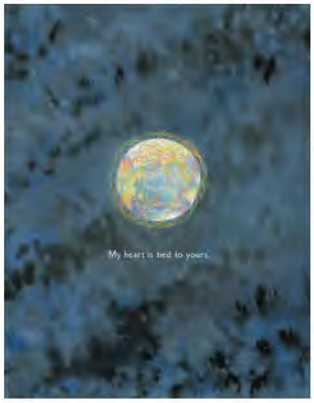
HEART STRINGS BIND US TOGETHER IN THIS HEARTWARMING PICTURE BOOK!



LOOK FOR THE RAINBOW-COLORED BINDING THREAD!





HEART STRING

By Brooke Boynton-Hughes

This book is a poignant reminder that we're all connected, whether we're loved ones or strangers. Through backyards and neighborhoods, over mountains, and across oceans, an invisible yet undeniable heart string ties us all together so that we are never truly alone. Follow the thread of this reassuring story to see how, even in a world as vast as ours, there is always a bond that connects us to the ones we love—and to the world we share. From anxiety about the first day of school to missing a traveling parent or distant grandparent, any kid will find comfort in this story about how love can overcome both distance and hardship. Revealing the threads that bind us together as one global community, Heart String offers a timely celebration of love and connection during uncertain times.

BROOKE BOYNTON-HUGHES is an introvert who often finds going out into the world and meeting new people anxiety inducing. But she does it anyway because the world is full of beautiful and interesting people worthy of connection. She writes and illustrates children's books in Fort Collins, Colorado, where she lives with her husband and children.

IF YOU WERE A CITY

By Kyo Maclear • Illustrated by Francesca Sanna

Just like people, there are so many ways a city can be. And this lively picture book explores all of them. From quiet and dreamy to bright and buzzing, the magnificent diversity of our world is vividly celebrated by connecting the uniqueness of its cities with the people who live in them. Wild, gritty, bookish, or sheltering—if you were a city, how would YOU be?

KYO MACLEAR (kyō means "capital city" in Japanese) was born in London and spent her childhood summers in Tokyo. She now lives with her family in Toronto (originating from the Mohawk word Tkaranto) where she writes books for all ages and dreams of big, beautiful cities created by—and for—everybody.

FRANCESCA SANNA grew up in Cagliari, a small, sunny city by the sea on the island of Sardinia, and currently lives in Zurich, a bigger, cloudy city by the mountains. Before becoming an illustrator, she received her bachelor's degree in architecture. She learned that cities are made by people and that people are made by the cities they live in, which is how she came to love to draw, visit, and live in cities.

The Exceptional Life and Fashion of Ann Lowe
By Kate Messner and Margaret E. Powell
Illustrated by Erin K. Robinson

A careful snip, a delicate fold. Fabric the color of new petals, skirts that flare like upside-down blossoms—in Ann's hands, a garden bursts into bloom! There is no "good enough." For Ann, only the best will do. Award-winning author Kate Messner, costume historian Margaret E. Powell, and fashion designer and illustrator Erin K. Robinson tell the powerful story of the groundbreaking Ann Lowe, who grew up in a small Alabama dress shop and became the first nationally known African American fashion designer. Sought after by millionaires and movie stars, her designs walked the red carpet and graced the wedding of Senator John F. Kennedy and Jacqueline Bouvier. At a time when the world around her thought African Americans deserved no more than second-class treatment, Ann expects no less of herself, and no less for herself, than the best.

KATE MESSNER is the New York Times bestselling author of more than 50 books for young readers. She lives on Lake Champlain with her family.

MARGARET E. POWELL was a decorative arts historian and a curatorial assistant at Pittsburgh's Carnegie Museum of Art. She was organizing a major exhibition about Ann Lowe's life and fashion before she passed away in 2019.

ERIN K. ROBINSON is an Emmy Award–nominated artist and a fashion designer. She works in a variety of media and currently divides her time between Washington, DC, and New York.

THE SNAIL

By Emily Hughes

Isamu Noguchi is one of the most important sculptors of all time. This is his story. Noguchi was a Japanese American artist who gave the world light. But the world was not so giving in return. Growing up mixed-race, born in the United States and raised in Japan, Noguchi found himself perceived as an outsider who did not belong in either country. Unable to identify fully as either Japanese or American, he turned to his art to shape, hold, and create light—to conquer the darkness without. Poetic and searing, heart-wrenching and exquisite, Emily Hughes's paean to creativity explores emotions ravaged by a history of Japanese incarceration, the effects of personal isolation, and the power of art to heal those wounds.

EMILY HUGHES is the author-illustrator of Wild and many other books for kids, including the award-winning Charlie & Mouse series and Everything You Need for a Treehouse. She was born in Hawaii and lives and works in the United Kingdom.

WOVEN OF THE WORLD

By Katey Howes • Illustrated by Dinara Mirtalipova

As rhythmic as the swish of a loom, and as vibrant as a skein of brightly dyed wool, this lyrical picture book shares the history of weaving through the centuries and around the world, as imagined by a young weaver learning her craft. Her family's weaving practice shows her that each of us is a tapestry: a unique, rich, and beautifully interwoven combination of traits and traditions, with a pattern that is still emerging. At once a celebration of a time-honored art and a meditation on the ways we are interconnected, this artfully woven narrative gathers various threads of weaving—as a technical skill, a cultural tradition, and a metaphor for how our lives are knit together—into a radiantly intertwined whole.

KATEY HOWES is an award-winning children's author and poet. She divides her time between writing, crafting, and raising three ravenous readers on a small mountain in eastern Pennsylvania.

DINARA MIRTALIPOVA is a self-taught illustrator and designer. Born and raised in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, she studied computer science, but her true passion was always patterns and illustration. She works and lives in Sagamore Hills, Ohio, with her family.

OVER AND UNDER THE WAVES

By Kate Messner • Illustrated by Christopher Silas Neal

Over the waves, the sea lions bark and seagulls wheel and call. The bay is smooth and bright in the sun. But under the waves, there's a whole hidden forest, full of whales and wolf eels, sardines and sea bass, leopard sharks and luminous jellies, as well as the waving kelp that shelters them all. Discover the magical depths of the kelp forest, and all the fascinating creatures living just a paddle's length away—both over and under the waves. Award-winning duo Kate Messner and Christopher Silas Neal return in this latest addition to the Over and Under picture book series.

KATE MESSNER is the award-winning author of the Over and Under series, as well as more than a dozen other books for young readers. She lives on Lake Champlain with her family.

CHRISTOPHER SILAS NEAL is the award-winning illustrator of the acclaimed Over and Under series. He lives and works in Brooklyn.

JO BRIGHT AND THE SEVEN BOTS

By Deborah Underwood • Illustrated by Meg Hunt

Once upon a planetoid, surrounded by her friends, a girl, Jo Bright, loved building bots from scraps and odds and ends! Snow White gets a stellar upgrade in this clever retelling with a truly inventive heroine. With wit, bravery, and some spare circuit boards, Jo will foil the queen, befriend a dragon, and build herself a celestially happy ending of her own. From the team that created the acclaimed Interstellar Cinderella and Reading Beauty comes another funny and empowering interstellar fairy tale.

DEBORAH UNDERWOOD is the author of numerous acclaimed picture books, including Interstellar Cinderella and Reading Beauty. She lives in Northern California.

MEG HUNT is the illustrator of Interstellar Cinderella and Reading Beauty, as well as a printmaker, an educator, and an all-around maker of things. She lives and works in Portland, Oregon.

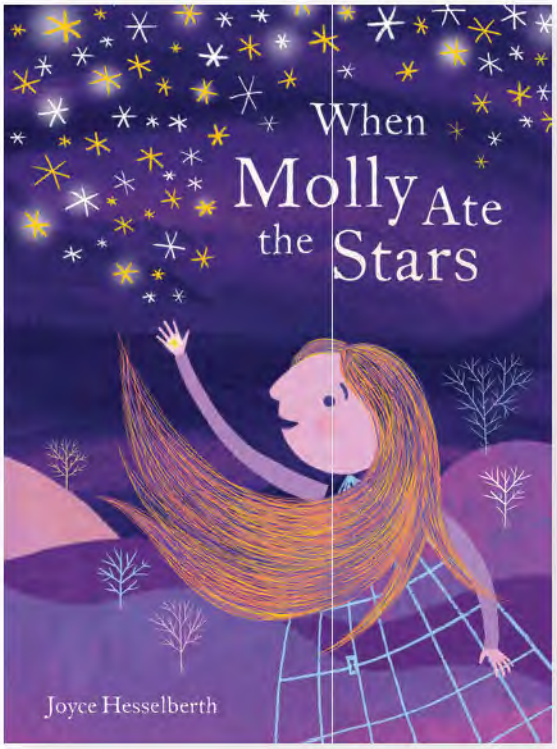
BEAUTIFULLY DEMONSTRATES HOW OUR ACTIONS AFFECT OTHERS



WHEN MOLLY ATE THE STARS

By Joyce Hesselberth

A girl reaches for the stars, only to gobble them up in this enchanting picture book that shares an important message about selflessness, generosity, and friendship. On a cold, clear night, Molly gazes up at the bright stars above, which look good enough to eat. If she could reach far enough . . . surely it wouldn't hurt to try just one. Would it? As luminous and dreamlike as a falling star, this gorgeously illustrated picture book is a modern fable that shares timeless truths about how the consequences of our actions affect those around us, how desire is not always what it seems, and how generosity and friendship glow brightest of all.

JOYCE HESSELBERTH is an author and illustrator of children's books. Joyce lives with her family in Maryland.

THE GROUNDBREAKING MIDDLE GRADE NOVEL FROM THE AUTHOR OF BELOVED CALDECOTT HONOREE ALL THE WORLD

LOLO'S LIGHT

By Liz Garton Scanlon

Once in every kid's life, sometime after their first memory but before they can drive a car, something happens that doesn't happen to anyone else they know. It might be something good. It might be something bad. For Millie, it's something really sad. Lolo, her neighbors' infant daughter, dies inexplicably on the night Millie babysits. It's not Millie's fault. And there was nothing she could have done. But how does she go on? Readers who love The Thing About Jellyfish and Counting by 7s will find hope in this honest, poignant, and profound coming-of-age story about grief, redemption, and life as a kid experiencing both. Cathartic and important, this is an empathetic portrait of a girl at her most vulnerable—a mess of grief, love, and ultimately, acceptance—who must reckon with those most difficult of demons: death . . . and life.

LIZ GARTON SCANLON is the author of numerous beloved books for young people, including the Caldecott Honor–winning picture book All the World. She lives with her family in Austin, Texas.

PRAISE FOR LOLO'S LIGHT:

"Lolo's Light is a tender, gentle exploration of grief and a testament to the light—family, friendship, community—that helps us through it."

—Elana K. Arnold, author of A Boy Called Bat, Michael L. Printz honoree, and National Book Award finalist

"What a wonderful, truly awesome and amazing story this is. Millie, Sam, Ms. Fritz, Lolo, the Acostas—theirs is a story filled with grace, longing, and, above all, love. My heart will never be the same again."

—Kathi Appelt, author of The Underneath, National Book Award finalist, and Newbery honoree

"Expertly woven with tenderness and grace, this is a book for anyone who needs reminding there is always light to be found in the darkness."

JORDAN J AND THE TRUTH ABOUT JORDAN J

The Kids Under the Stairs • By K.A. Holt

Jordan J has a lot to say. The only thing he can concentrate on is auditioning for his favorite dance show, Fierce Across America. But with his mom's recent unemployment, his dreams are crashing. With the help of Casey Price, a member of the school dance team, Jordan J just might have a chance to showcase his electric moves on national TV. But as he starts spending more time with Casey and less with his old friends, he begins to wonder how he can ever make everyone happy—including himself. With a lovable cast of characters, never-before-seen dance moves, and bighearted passion, this heartwarming, laugh-out-loud novel in verse tells an honest, authentic story about friendship, dance, and self-confidence.

K.A. HOLT is the author of Rhyme Schemer, House Arrest, Knockout, and Redwood and Ponytail, along with several other books for young people. She lives in Austin, Texas.

PRAISE FOR BEN Y AND THE GHOST IN THE MACHINE:

"Holt's sequel digs into Ben Y's journey grappling with grief and identity. The novel hits the important points of understanding and verbalizing what one is feeling. . . . An excellent addition to 'The Kids Under the Stairs' series and one that kids and adults alike will supremely enjoy."

—School Library Journal, starred review

"An emotionally charged, dynamic novel in verse. This focused character study delivers layered attention to grief and self-exploration. Multiple formats, including chat messages in the Minecraft-like Sandbox, combined with extraordinary pacing make this a win for reluctant readers, while the humor and emotional reach will draw in anyone interested in middle-grade emotional realism. With minimal physical descriptions, names cue ethnic diversity. Accomplished, lively, and heartfelt."

—Kirkus Reviews

PRAISE FOR BENBEE AND THE TEACHER GRIEFER:

"One of those rare novels that ache with honesty: it is about discouragement and hope, about listening and being heard, about the fear of vulnerability and the absolute joy of being known. . . . You won't, you really won't stop turning the pages!"

—Gary D. Schmidt, Newbery Honoree, Printz Honoree, and National Book Award Finalist for Okay for Now

"Perfect for anyone who loves video games, anyone who thinks and learns a little differently, and really, anyone who loves a great story. Readers will laugh along and root for BenBee and his friends through all the twists and turns of this engaging multimodal story. I absolutely adored this book."

—Kate Messner, author of Chirp and Breakout

"This delightfully divergent story made me laugh, cry, and cheer for these four uniquely talented friends, and the dedicated teacher who brings them together and helps them shine."

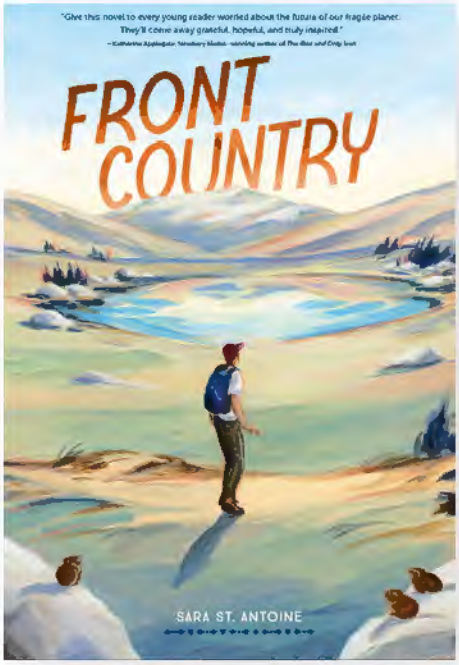
MY SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN MEETS GRETA THUNBERG IN THIS HEARTFELT, EXCITING NOVEL ABOUT ONE GIRL'S GROWING AWARENESS OF HERSELF, THE WORLD, AND THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE TWO.



FRONT COUNTRY

By Sara St. Antoine

When eighth grader Ginny Shepard learns that her favorite animal, the pika, may not survive the changing climate, suddenly, nothing matters: not tennis, not homework, and certainly not college prep. But her parents remain stuck in their ways. And when they send her to a camp where she can finally see pikas and other threatened creatures firsthand, she discovers she's been sent there for all the wrong reasons. The only girl in a group with five challenging boys, Ginny struggles to find her place. But as her friendships with her fellow campers deepen, she starts to see other sides of them—and of herself. Set against the sweeping Montana alpine wilderness, this epic adventure is a testament to the tremendous heartbreak of realizing that the world isn't okay at all—and how that knowledge, and what we choose to do with it, shapes us into who we are.

SARA ST. ANTOINE is an award-winning author and freelance writer. She lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

"Front Country is the book we need at the time we need it: a beautifully written story about finding meaning in the face of despair and friendship in the unlikeliest of places. Give this novel to every young reader worried about the future of our fragile planet. They'll come away grateful, hopeful, and truly inspired."

—Katherine Applegate, Newbery Medal–winning and #1 New York Times bestselling author of The One and Only Ivan

"Front Country is one of those books that takes you on a journey—and it's a journey we all need to be taking. Ginny begins with despair about the fate of a world that has let itself fall into a climactic crisis, and this is only heightened when her family's response is to send her on a summer camping trip that is designed, she thinks, to deflect her from that despair. But in the crucible of the Montana mountains and the painful emotional world of five hurt boys, she is energized into hope and purpose. This is a story about the ache and promise of our world, and it begs us to pay attention to both."

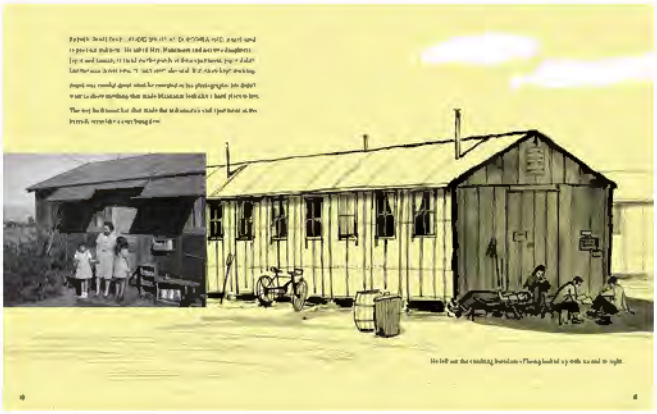
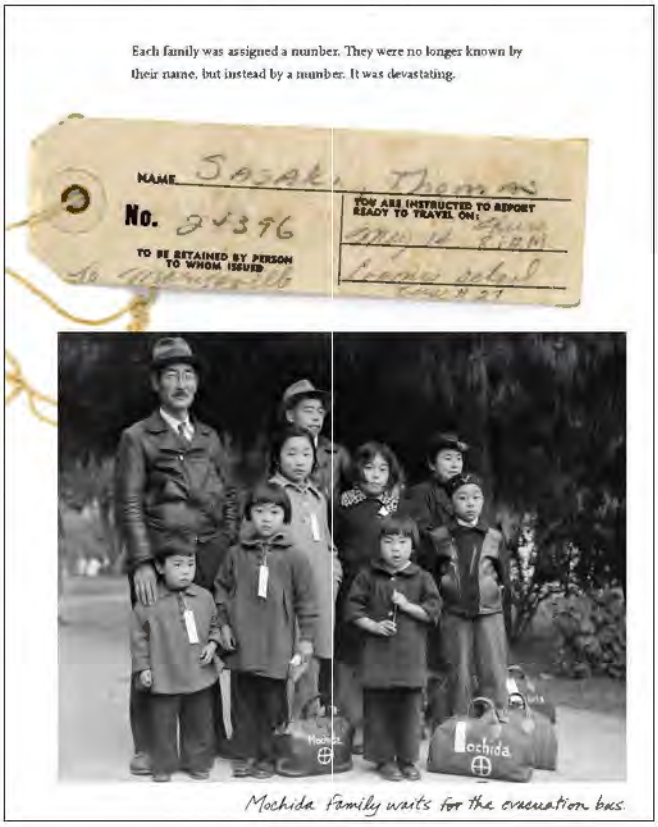
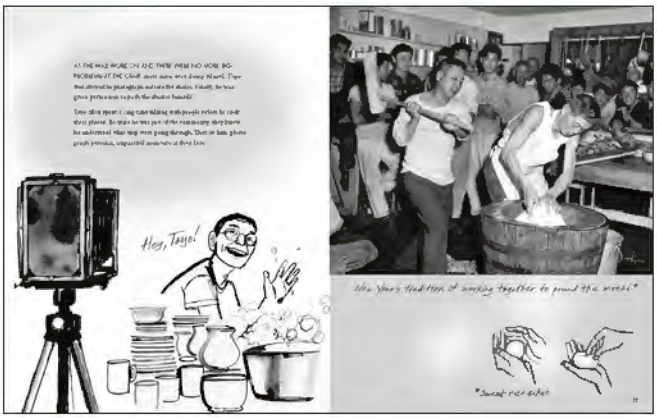
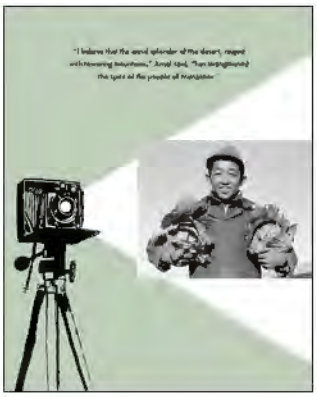
RANDY DUBURKE is the award-winning illustrator of several children's books and graphic novels. Best Shot in the West is his first fully painted graphic novel.

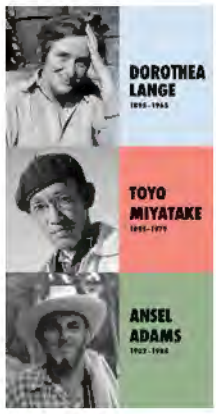
COLLECTIVELY, THESE PHOTOS ARE THE LENS THROUGH WHICH WE REMEMBER THE INCARCERATION.









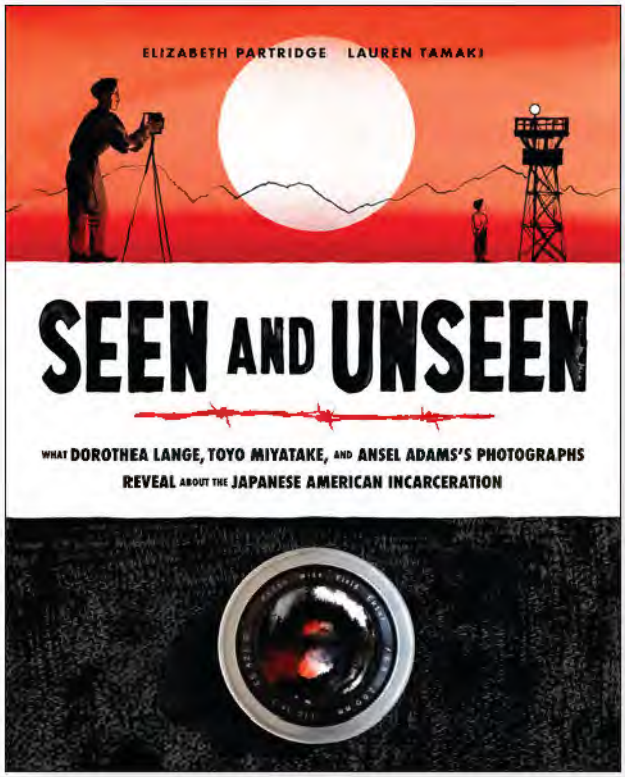


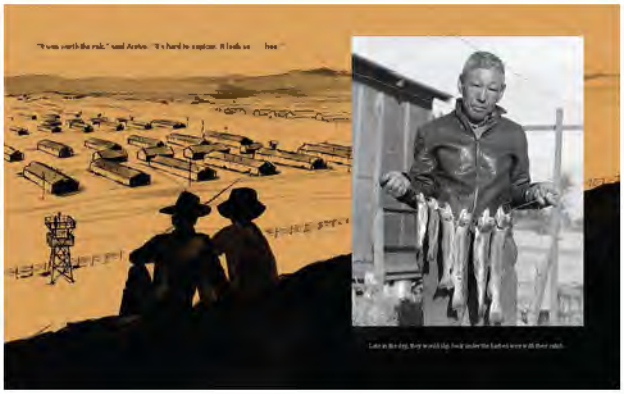
DOROTHEA LANGE was a photographer best known for her haunting Depression-era images. Lange was hired by the federal government to record the conditions of the camps. Deeply critical of the policy, she wanted her photos to shed light on the harsh reality of incarceration.

TOYO MIYATAKE was a Japanese-born, Los Angeles–based photographer who lent his artistic eye to portraying events in the Japanese American community. Imprisoned at Manzanar, he devised a way to smuggle in photographic equipment, determined to show what was really going on inside the barbed-wire confines of the camp.

ANSEL ADAMS was an acclaimed landscape photographer and environmentalist. Hired by the director of Manzanar, Adams hoped his carefully curated pictures would demonstrate to the rest of the United States the resilience of those in the camps.

THREE PHOTOGRAPHERS. THREE PERSPECTIVES. AND THROUGH THE LENSES OF THEIR CAMERAS, THREE DIFFERENT VIEWS OF ONE BITTER CHAPTER IN AMERICAN HISTORY.





SEEN AND UNSEEN

What Dorothea Lange, Toyo Miyatake, and Ansel Adams's Photographs Reveal About the Japanese American Incarceration

By Elizabeth Partridge • Illustrated by Lauren Tamaki

Three months after Japan attacked Pearl Harbor in 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered the incarceration of all Japanese and Japanese Americans living on the West Coast of the United States. Leaving behind everything they owned, they were forced to live under hostile conditions in camps, their futures uncertain. How do we honestly remember this critical time in our history? Three photographers set out to document life at Manzanar, an incarceration camp in the California desert.

ELIZABETH PARTRIDGE is the acclaimed author of more than a dozen books for young readers. Her books have received many honors, including a National Book Award finalist, a Boston Globe–Horn Book Award, and an ALA Michael L. Printz Honor. The goddaughter of Dorothea Lange, Elizabeth grew up surrounded by Dorothea's photographs. She lives in Berkeley, California.

LAUREN TAMAKI is an illustrator whose work has been recognized by the Society of Illustrators, the Society for News Design, AI-AP, and the National Magazine Awards. Having grown up in Calgary as a fourth-generation Japanese Canadian, Lauren was inspired by this project to learn more about her grandparents, both of whom were incarcerated in camps in British Columbia. She lives in New York City.

KILLER UNDERWEAR INVASION

How to Spot Fake News, Disinformation & Conspiracy Theories • By Elise Gravel

Can peanuts give you super strength? Were unicorns discovered on the moon? Did Martians really invade New Jersey? For anyone who has ever encountered outrageous stories like these and wondered whether they were true, this funny yet informative book breaks down what fake news is, why people spread it, and how to tell what is true and what isn't. With quirky illustrations and a humorous tone, Elise Gravel brings her kid-accessible wit to the increasingly important subject of media literacy and equips younger readers with the skills needed to interact with global news.

ELISE GRAVEL has written and illustrated more than 30 books which have been translated into a dozen languages and have received many accolades and awards, including Canada's prestigious Governor General's Literary Award in the illustration category. Elise lives with her husband and their children in Montreal.

FRIENDSHIP CAROUSEL

By Suzy Ultman

Hop on board! Are you ready to ride? All aboard the Friendship Carousel! First, flip the pages of this playful carousel book for a poignant ride that celebrates friends, both big and small. As each pair of friends comes together, they literally form a three-dimensional, cherry-red heart. Second, tie the ribbon to make a carousel shape with this carousel-themed book. Third, put it on display to admire! This eye-catching novelty book is unlike anything you've ever seen—it has a peekaboo front cover, shaped pages, a tactile heart on each page, and a lush ribbon closure. With a toylike object quality, this irresistibly tactile book is perfect for reading, playing, and displaying. Good-looking, high quality, and durable, it also makes a deluxe gift.

SUZY ULTMAN is an illustrator, product designer, toy creator, and bookmaker. Her interest in friendship and community has been inspired, in part, by the many places she's lived. She currently lives in Columbus, Ohio.

TOUCHWORDS: COLOR CARDS

Illustrated by Rilla Alexander

A unique and essential deck of ten cards to teach a dazzling range of colors, explore words and language, and inspire imagination! These ultra-sturdy die-cut cards allow children to experience colors and words through sight and touch. A primary image on each card accompanied by a cluster of related words provides the ideal building blocks for open-ended conversation starters, encouraging children to identify the many colors in the world around them. In addition, each card displays multiple shades of each color to help foster an understanding of the richness of the color wheel.

RILLA ALEXANDER is an illustrator and artist whose work has appeared on everything from toys and tea cups to buses and buildings. She explores creativity, ideas, and language through simple characters, graphic forms, and bold colors, inspiring both children and adults through books and workshops. Her books include A Bear Sat on my Porch Today, the TouchWords series, Motor Mix: Emergency, and Motor Mix: Flight. She lives in South Pasadena, California.

YOU ALREADY HAVE THE ANSWERS

A Gratitude Journal

By Amanda Deibert • Illustrated by Amber Vittoria

From Amanda Deibert—the writer behind several hit TV and comics series—comes this compelling journal that reveals how you are so much stronger and braver than you think. Users are invited to reflect on a single question each day—ranging from offbeat to motivational, but always deeply encouraging—curated around a different theme each month. Amanda's inspiring personal observations and insightful daily prompts will help you discover just how much you already know, and how much you already have to be grateful for.

PLAN, DREAM, REFLECT

A Three-Year Progress Journal
By Katharine Watson

Whether you're working on a big creative project, learning a skill, or putting new habits into practice, this beautiful journal is a place to begin the next chapter of your journey. Divided into three sections to be filled out over three years, this journal offers annually repeating questions that invite you to assess progress and highlights over the past year and to thoughtfully approach goals and dreams for the year ahead. It's easy to start, and unintimidating to complete: Begin at any point in the year when you feel most reflective. The following year, you'll answer the same questions and look back on your writing from the past—so that you can track and reflect on achievements and opportunities for growth. Luxe foil stamping and Katharine Watson's elegant artwork make this a wonderful keepsake archive of your progress over three years.
