FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT

Frank Lloyd Wright is recognised worldwide as one of the greatest architects of the twentieth century. His work heralded a new thinking in architecture, using innovation in design and engineering made possible by newly developed technology and materials. His creative ability extended far beyond the border of architecture to graphic design, furniture design, art glass, textiles and decorative elements for the home.

GRAY MALIN

Gray Malin is famous for his impressive portfolio of photographs that create playful and stunning celebrations of light, shape and perspective. With his talented eye and the help of a doorless helicopter and harness, his awe-inspiring aerial photographs capture vibrant images, from pristine shorelines dotted with colourful umbrellas to the majestic geometrical surroundings of ski slopes and snow-covered mountains.

LIBERTY

Arthur Liberty opened his London emporium off Regent Street in 1875. Its iconic building, constructed from the ancient timbers of battleships during the Tudor revival in 1924, is a London landmark with an in-house design studio still creating beautiful prints, and reworking finds from its historic archive.
